COURT REMOVES TRADE SHACKLES
FROM PACKERS

Tribunal of District of Columbia Suspends "Consent Decree" Limiting Firms to Meat Trade.

RULING DUE TO PLEA OF CANNERS

Packers Free to Engage in Grocery Business, Canning, or Anything Else They Choose.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 20-23 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The "Be Five" packers have won an outstanding victory in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

Justice Bailey yesterday suspended the operation of the "consent decree" of 1920 which put the packers out of all business except the preparation and sale of meat products.

The action of the District Supreme Court nullifies years of effort on the part of the packers to secure the hardware business, the handling of all food products.

It had been urged that by utilization of their meat packing organizations, their stores, their sales forces, their delivery wagons, the packers could run all other dealers in food and obtain a monopoly that would place the producing and the consuming public at their mercy.

The packers involved are the Cudahy Co., Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., and Wilson & Co.

The packers have had the shackles removed as effectively as if the order had been vacated and once more may branch into the grocery business, the hardware business, the running business, or anything else they may elect.

Canners Intervened.

The suspension of the decree was brought about through the intervention of the California Co-operative Canneries, a Pacific Coast concern which, under J. Henry McGehee, was an investigator for the Department of Justice. He made the statement that you "could not indict $100,000."

During the Wilson administration, a Mitchell Palmer, as Attorney-General, procured the agreement to which the packers appended their signatures and which barred them from every business enterprise except the handling of meats. Farmers' organizations throughout the country had been urging this restriction.

"Suspended," Not "Vacated."

Justice Bailey of the District Supreme Court refused to vacate the decree as asked by the packers. They alleged their consent had been obtained by duress and that the decree had been violated by the government, since former Attorney-General Daugherty had sold their agreement to it against their will. Justice Bailey said, however, there was little difference between "vacating" the decree and "suspending" it.

The wholesale grocers and the Department of Justice are expected to take cognizance of the court action. Attorney-General Sargent said he could not forecast the action of the department.

Justice Bailey, in his opinion, said his first view had been that the decree should be suspended entirely so far as the cannery business was concerned, but that all of the battles—the government as well as the packers—had agreed that it should be suspended or modified as a whole.

Under the terms of the decree, the packers agreed to sell all their holdings in public stockyards, in backyard railroads and terminals, and public cold storage warehouses, and forever disassociate themselves from the retail meat business and the wholesale business in groceries, canned fruits, vegetables and other extensive "unrelated" lines upon which they had embarked.

WORD FOR DEATH

Mme. Berger Gave Instructions So That Felines Might Accompany Her to Heaven.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Mme. Kitty Berger, harpist, who died of heart disease in the Presbyterian Hospital Tuesday, left word that her four cats should be killed at once, so they might go to heaven with her, her friend, Mrs. Adolph Schminke said yesterday.

Mrs. Schminke said she gave the cats to the American Society for Prevention of Cruelty to animals to be killed.

Mrs. Berger added that when Mme. Berger was told, two years ago, to go to the hospital for treatment, she refused to do so, saying no one else could care for her cats, and that, before her death, flowers were brought to her from the grave of her favorite cat.

Mme. Berger, in private life, was Mrs. Paul Panzer, was born in Austria, where her parents were members of the household of Emperor Francis Joseph. She played before the Emperor, Queen Victoria, Queen Alexandra and President Roosevelt.

FINED $150 FOR TWO TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

Seventeenth and Eighteenth Charges Lodged Against Samuel Schiffman Heard.

Police Judge Homer today fined Samuel Schiffman, 22 years old, a dress jobber living at the Woodbine Hotel, $150. Schiffman was charged with parking in front of 814 North Eighth street, on April 9, for more than an hour, and for parking on the wrong side of the street. He was fined $75 for each offense.

These two charges make the seventeenth and eighteenth lodged against Schiffman for traffic violations since March, 1922. He recently was fined $150 by Police Judge Matthews for three traffic violations, but he appealed the cases, and the fines were lowered in the higher court.

Schiffman testified today that Patrolman Meyer, who had arrested him, had told Schiffman that he would arrest him every time he got the opportunity. Meyer denied having said this but stated that he was going to "spend $300 to get his job."

Bert Reynolds, 152 St. George street, was fined $87 and costs on two speeding charges, by Judge Homer. Motorist Officer McGee arrested Reynolds at Gravois avenue and Marquette street for driving his machine 30 miles an hour. McGee told Reynolds to proceed to the Magnolia Station, but when Reynolds got to Grand boulevard he sped away.

"Policeman McGee pursued him, and after a circuitous chase, during which the policeman fired a shot, Reynolds was caught at Gravois and Arsenal street. He was charged with driving 40 miles an hour during his attempted escape. Reynolds pleaded guilty, and was fined $17 on the first offense and $40 on the second."

'RED ROOTERS' AND THEIR CINCINNATI
BEER SEPARATED

Prohibition Agents Pour What's Left of 25 Half-Kegs Into the Hotel Statler Sink.

SAUERKRAUT SUPPLY REMAINS, HOWEVER

Fans' Contingent Engaged Entire 17th Floor and Installed All the Comforts of Home.

Warrants charging possession of liquor were issued this afternoon against "Garry" Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati National League baseball club, and seven others, as the result of the beer raid.

The "Royal Red Rooters of Cincinnati" were represented at the Federal Building today by delegates attempting to explain how 25 half-barrels of real beer changed to sauerkraut, the "Cincinnati National League" team, several kegs of sauerkraut, barrels of pickles, great quantities of sausages, pretzels and cheeses to St. Louis Tuesday.

The delegates of the "Royal Red Rooters" had been asked to explain, because the "Royal Rooters" and what was left of their 25 half-barrels of real beer were partly by Federal prohibition agents at Hotel Statler yesterday afternoon.

It is the custom of the Royal Rooters, about 110 good men and true, each year to accompany the Cincinnati "Reds" on their first trip of the season. They have been doing it for 12 years. No matter where the National League schedule may take the "cincy" team, the "Reds" go. St. Louis—the Royal Rooters are there, and they are not there alone. For with them they take great kegs of sauerkraut, jars of pickles, sausages, hams, cheeses, pretzels, real beer, such things as are close to the heart of a Cincinnati gentleman. They did it before prohibition became a law, and they haven't thought of giving up their beer because of national legislation.

So yesterday, when the "Reds" came to St. Louis for their first out-of-town game, which was played Wednesday, the Royal Rooters came with them, well equipped with things edible and drinkable. The Royal Rooters took up quarters at Hotel Statler, engaging the whole seventeenth floor for their club room. Each Royal Rooters paid $80 to the trip fund, this $80 paying for his railroad fare, his breakfast and luncheon served in the club room, his bedroom, and the pickles, pretzels, beer, etc., which he indulged in after the game.

When the Royal Rooters arrived Manager C. S. Abell of the Statler asked if they had anything better than their civic loyalty to put them on. The Royals said no, they only had some beverage. And when trucks were backed to the Statler's door, and 25 barrels were unloaded along with the pretzels, cheeses, Manager Abell said: "I must be true for who, he argued, would unload beer openly?"

However, it seems that Manager Abell must have been misinformed. Rumors about the Royal Rooters and beer reached John P. Hunt, special Assistant Attorney-General in charge of Federal prohibition cases, and Dyott turned him in. He was rushed to the Federal agents.

It was 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Several rooters were draped about chairs in their seventeenth floor "clubroom." They were ready to leave for the ball park. The "Pansy Entertainers" band, 10 pieces, which the rooters had brought from Cincinnati, also was ready to leave. The chef, the waiter, the man who makes drinks, all brought by the Royal Rooters were thinking of nothing but the game. And then a dry blanket, set thrown over the host from Cincinnati, came the officers of the United States Government.

The first thing the uninvited guests found were two barrels on tap. Cheered on by their discovery, they rushed to the seventeenth floor refrigerator, and there they found 11 more barrels, anxiously waiting to be tapped. With the cold hearts of Federal agents, they up-ended each and every barrel, and after taking samples for alcoholic content analysis, poured the amber contents in the sink to the delight of the Statler staff.

"Garry" Herrmann, the owner of the Cincinnati Nationals, who also is staying at the Statler, said he wasn't a Royal Red Rooters, but they were all good friends of his. He expressed great surprise when informed that samples of the beer, tested by the Federal agents, had run from 2.5 per cent to 4.5 per cent alcoholic content. "I can't believe it," said Herrmann. "It didn't taste like that to me."

CRATTY IN WOODY
CASE DENIED

State Introduces Several Witnesses Who Contradict Statements of the Murder Defendant.

JUDGE PREPARING HIS INSTRUCTIONS

Circuit Attorney to Demand the Death Penalty—Case Expected to Go to Jury Late Today.

All testimony and evidence, whereby the State of Missouri will endeavor to send Clay H. Cratty to the gallows, for the murder in the early morning of Nov. 9, 1924, of Police Sergeant Robert E. Woody, was in the hands of the jury at noon. Circuit Judge Iltner announced a recess to 2 o'clock to prepare the instructions, and Cratty's fate is expected to be in the hands of the jury by evening.

Following Cratty's positive and the crime—his only admission being that he was present at the scene—the State consumed most of the morning in rebuttal. Cratty had contended his age was but 19. His marriage license, obtained in Granite City, Ill., June 9, 1924, was introduced, giving his age as 24, but Cratty, who had been recalled to the stand, corrected the figure to 19.

Following Cratty's denial that he was the victim of police brutality, the State placed City Hospital physician and the city jail physician, Dr. Wheeler, on the stand. All uniformly testified that the only injury suffered by Cratty was a gunshot wound in the fleshy part of the thigh. Capt. Stinger, who was in charge of the Angelica Street station, testified that the murder occurred, and killed Sgt. Woody, Detective Bureau, emphatically denied the prisoner was mistreated following his arrest.

In answer to Cratty's denial that he was with three companions, engaging in the robbery of the mobile parties prior to the murder, the State recalled Mrs. Earl J. Karns of 6744 Chamberlain avenue, one of the victims. Again, as previously, she pointed out Cratty as the leader of the robbers, who held a revolver at her husband's head and threatened to "blow out his brains," while a companion robber struck him in the mouth and knocked out a tooth.

Cratty took the witness stand in his own behalf yesterday afternoon and denied that he fired the shot which injured Sgt. Woody. He denied participating in the several trifling robberies which preceded the murder. He denied ever having seen the robbery victims as they stood up in court.

Victim of Many Arrests.

Instead, he pictured himself as a victim of unrelenting police hounding and persecution and a victim of their brutality. To questions of attorneys he cupped his right hand to his ear, explaining that his hearing was injured by a beating over the head with a rubber hose, administered at the Angelica Street Station, following his arrest. Finally, he set up an alibi that he was at a county resort in the early evening and was at the scene of the shooting only by chance.

Though looking older, Cratty maintained that he was but 19 years of age, and not 24, the age he gave the police upon his arrest. He testified that when not in jail he lived at 2443 North Spring avenue with his wife, mother, a sister and brother and a sister-in-law. Asked by his attorney how many times he had been arrested, he replied so many it was "hard to tell." He had never been convicted, he said, as a suspect in burglary charges, and in one instance had established his innocence by producing jail records showing he was in jail at Clayton at the time of the alleged robbery. As further evidence that the police persecuted him, he testified he was held in the jail holdover from Oct. 12, 1923, to Feb. 7, 1924, and from Feb. 24 to April 18, 1924.

The witness denied positively the story told by Nicholas Hare that he, Hare, Edward Silver and Albert Gregori set out from a "home brew joint" in an automobile the evening of Nov. 8 to "pull a few jobs." He was not with them when they held up several auto-

FIEMEN'S PAY
OUT OF BUDGET

Board of Estimate and Apportionment Takes Action Following Ruling by City Counselor.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, meeting today in the Mayor's office, declined to include the firemen's pay increase, approved by the people at the city election April 7, in the municipal budget to be submitted to the Board of Aldermen for the coming year.

The board of Estimate took this action on the strength of an opinion from City Counselor Senti, to the effect that the City Charter forbids the passing on any ordinance appropriating money, unless the Board of Estimates has first approved the proposed appropriation.

This provision, the counselor holds, applies to ordinance passed by the initiative, as the firemen's pay increase was no less than to ordinance enacted by the Board of Aldermen.

The firemen's increase, as provided in the ordinance approved in the election, was to be $25 a month for all members of the department up to and including captains. For privates it meant an increase from $155 to $180 a month. This would make the pay of the privates in the Fire Department equal to the pay of patrolmen in the Police Department, under the new State legislation, which has not yet come into effect.

The Counselor's estimate of the cost of the increase to the city was $270,000 to $380,000 a year. In the tentative budget submitted by the Comptroller last week, while Mayor Kiel was still in office, the firemen's increase was not included. At that time the chief of the department appeared and asked that an increase be granted to them, to make their pay approximately equal to that of Police Captains at the new scale, or $240 a year.

President of Board of Public Service Holds Over; Water Commissioner Heads Public Utilities.

GEHNER ASSESSOR, FINDLEY RENAMED

Cunliff, Fisk, Christophel and Hooke Advised By Mayor in Letter of Their Retirement.

Mayor Miller, informally announcing his "personal cabinet" today, retained E. R. Kinsey as president of the Board of Public Service and appointed Water Commissioner E. E. Wall as Director of Public Utilities.

Brooks and Salisbury are the three other appointees who, with Kinsey and Wall, will constitute the Board of Public Service. Kinsey is Robert B. Brooks, Director of Streets and Sewers; Harry L. Salisbury, Director of Public Welfare, and John H. Brod Jr., Alderman from the Twenty-eighth Ward, who becomes Director of Public Safety.

Brooks and Salisbury are the only ones who never have before held public office, although Salisbury was an unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for City Collector in 1922 against the incumbent, Edmond Koeln.

Effective May 1.

The appointments are effective May 1.

Mayor Miller also announced the appointment of Fred Gehner, a Deputy Assessor, as City Assessor, to succeed William Huder immediately.

William T. Findley, secretary to former Mayor Kiel for five years, was reappointed by Mayor Miller.

Salisbury, Brod, Brooks and Gehner were mentioned previously as being on the Mayor's slate for the appointments, but neither Wall nor Kinsey had been mentioned.

The retiring members of the Board of Public Service are Nelson Cunliff, Director of Public Welfare; Clinton H. Fisk, Director of Streets and Sewers; John P. Christophel, Director of Public Safety, and James A. Hooke, Director of Public Utilities. To each of them Mayor Miller sent the following letter:

"This is to advise you that I have this day appointed, effective May 1, 1925, the following members of the Board of Public Service for the ensuing four years (naming them):

"I am not unmindful of your service to the city during your tenure of office and while it was not my intention to make a change in the service board for 30 days, certain contingencies have arisen and I deem it advisable to immediately appoint the new board and proceed with the city's business along the lines outlined by me in my platform.

"Recognizing the public spirit you have always manifested and your deep interest in civic affairs, I feel satisfied you will give to your successor in office such advice and consideration which will enable him to more readily acquaint himself with the duties of his position."

Mayor Miller's appointments disposed of six of the most important posts in the administration. The office of City Counselor, now held by Oliver Senti, has not as yet been filled by a choice, and it is probable that Senti will hold over for about 30 days.

There remain the appointment of several commissioners, such as Survey Commissioner, Park Commissioner, Water Commissioner and the positions of City Marshal, City Register and the two city police judgeships. These latter positions will be filled by Clyde C. Beck and Harry P. Roseman, but Mayor Miller has not as yet officially announced their appointment.

Salaries $5000 a Year.

The salaries of the five members of the Board of Public Service are $5000 annually. The Assessor's office carries with it salary of $5000 annually, but fees received for the handling of State income tax returns pay an additional $5000 to the office, which is retained by the Assessor personally. The Mayor's secretary receives $4200 annually. Kinsey's reappointment as President of the Board of Public Service is effective May 1.

'FIERY CROSS' PUT ON CALVARY HILL ROAD

Planting Emblem Seems to Have Become a Favorite Outdoor Sport Here.

The planting of flaming crosses seems to have become a favorite outdoor sport on these warm April evenings. Those who have not had a flaming cross in their neighborhood thus far should not get discouraged, as the illuminators may reach them later.

No great technical skill is required in making or setting up these so-called crosses. Any two boards, crossed at almost any angle, will serve. Kerosene is needed to make the wood burn brightly, and one can get still better results by wrapping the wood in burlap or other cloth and soaking the cloth with kerosene before applying the match.

The latest flaming cross reported was in the middle of the road on Calvary Hill, between Calvary and Bellefontaine Cemeteries. A mounted policeman, who found it and removed it after midnight, was told by motorists that it was placed and lighted by a man wearing blue overalls, who rode away in a Ford car.

Other similar contraptions, burned in the last few nights, have been so placed as not to obstruct traffic, and were not near enough to any building to cause danger. One was on the grounds of St. Ann's Catholic Foundling Asylum, Page and Union boulevards, and another was in front of the heroic statue of Saint Louis on Art Hill.

An earlier demonstration of the same sort, according to reports, was made on the City Hall lawn early in the morning of April 8, following determination of the result of the election for Mayor.

ALLEGED REDS KILL THREE PARIS YOUTHS

Wound Nine Others From Ambush as Victims Leave Republican League Meeting.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, April 24.—In what the police declare to have been a prepared ambush by alleged communists outside a meeting of the National Republican League in the Rue Daumesnil early today, three youths leaving the meeting were killed and nine others wounded, one probably mortally, by a volley of revolver shots.

Two men, Joseph Bernardon and Paul Cler, who police say are communists, were arrested and the authorities later announced that Cler had confessed. Communist headquarters denied that the two were members of that party, while police say documents found on them prove the contrary.

The men carrying out the attack hid behind a street car and opened fire on the youths coming from the cabaret district. As it was drawing to a close it was noticed that groups were assembling around the playground, evidently hostile to the group holding the meeting. A member of the Republican League was sent to a meeting being held by Senator Millerand on the other side of Paris for a detachment of the "Patriotic Youth's Association" as a reinforcement.

It was a group of 40 of these youths upon whom the revolver fire was opened, one of them saying he heard the order given and the shooting of a whistle, following which came a rapid fusillade as if from a machine gun. Twenty empty cartridge shells were found in one spot nearby by the police this morning.

Asked by his attorney how many times he had been arrested, he replied so many it was "hard to tell." He had never been convicted, he said, as a suspect in burglary charges, and in one instance had established his innocence by producing jail records showing he was in jail at Clayton at the time of the alleged robbery. As further evidence that the police persecuted him, he testified he was held in the jail holdover from Oct. 12, 1923, to Feb. 7, 1924, and from Feb. 24 to April 18, 1924.

The witness denied positively the story told by Nicholas Hare that he, Hare, Edward Silver and Albert Gregori set out from a "home brew joint" in an automobile the evening of Nov. 8 to "pull a few jobs." He was not with them when they held up several auto-

WOMAN, 61, TO MARRY 4TH CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Mrs. Lucy J. Johnson, Excited by Inquiries, Threatens to Visit Minister Immediately.

The Civil War is an interesting subject to Mrs. Lucy J. Johnson, who encourages veterans of the conflict to relate their experiences from Fort Sumter down to Appomattox. She is to be married to Louis Rosenbrodt, who will be the fourth Civil War veteran to become her husband. She is 61 years old, he is 75.

The wedding is set for 7 p. m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Ida Stotter, of 4212 Chamberlain avenue, daughter of Mrs. Johnson, but today the plans were in danger, for Mrs. Johnson was unwilling to discuss the wedding with reporters, saying, "Mother's awful mad now. I wouldn't dare to do any more talking." At this juncture Mrs. Johnson, a well-preserved woman with an energetic manner, appeared.

Whose business is it if I do get married? she demanded of the reporter. "I'm going to the minister right now, that's what I'm going to do. I'm going to get married and go right home."

Daughter and reporters talked in vain. Mrs. Johnson refused to talk about her marriage, but was willing to talk about anything else, and inquired significantly on her growing inclination to get married right away.

Six children were born to her first marriage to a Civil War veteran. The next two marriages, also to veterans, were childless. She met Rosenbrodt at the Old Soldiers' Home at St. James, Mo., where she lived for a time. Rosenbrodt, who has two sons in St. James, is staying with Louis Stotter, of 4212 Chamberlain avenue. He and Mrs. Johnson got married at Clayton yesterday. Simultaneously with the wedding, Mrs. Stotter will celebrate her own twentieth wedding anniversary, and her five brothers and sisters will be present.

JUDGE AGAINST MAKING ST. LOUIS A "HICK" TOWN

Falkenhainer Administrators Rebuke to Police for Seizing an Amusement Device at a Carnival.

SHOULD LET SUCH GAMES RUN, HE SAYS

Fine, However, for Contempt of Injunction Not Assessed—Decision Vigorously Applauded.

"We don't want to make a 'hick' town of St. Louis. I think the public has a right to some sort of amusement, and carnival games in which skill of the operator is a material element should be left alone by the police," Circuit Judge Falkenhainer declared yesterday in assailing a rebuke to the Police Department for alleged violation of an injunction prohibiting interference with carnival devices where evidence of gambling is not found.

The rebuke came in the course of a hearing on contempt charges brought against the Police Board of Police Gerk and Chief of Detectives Kaiser by Charles M. Oliver, operator of a carnival at 4149 Gravois avenue. Oliver contended that the injunction issued in the gambling campaign had been violated in the arrest of Oscar Marquardt, who conducted a concession at the carnival.

Decision Vigorously Applauded. After listening to testimony on both sides, Judge Falkenhainer issued an order of contempt against the police board, but he did not assess a fine against the board, nor did he order the board to pay the costs of the hearing.

The device about which the case revolved was a toy automobile propelled by rubber bands. A fine was charged for running it and if the operator succeeded in making it stop before a number indicating a particular article of merchandise, such as an aluminum pan, he was entitled to receive the pan as a prize. If he didn't get a prize he got some candy anyway.

The police, interpreting the order of the new Police Board, decided that this was gambling and the gambling sound seemed to be a game of chance on a visit to the carnival grounds last Friday night. Oliver and Marquardt, on the contrary, intended it was a game of skill, and their contention was upheld by the court.

Intent of Law Discussed. "I believe this and similar games ought to be permitted to operate," Judge Falkenhainer said. "I don't believe that any game in which skill governs the outcome can be classed as a gambling device under the laws of Missouri, or that the Legislature intended it should be. I have pitched dice and hooks at men and thrown balls at African soldiers and I know they are games of skill because I never had any success with them. I think they are harmless pastimes."

Former Attorney-General Barrett, who represented the Police Board, then wanted a definite ruling that would distinguish between games which were harmless pastimes and those constituting gambling devices, but this the Judge refused to give, declaring the Police Board judgment and "ought to be left alone to use it." He said he would rely only on games brought before him, but that he would be glad to consult with the police regarding games of questionable status.

Police Commissioner Kortjohn said Judge Falkenhainer in the rooms of the courthouse after the decision and took occasion to repeat the Judge's remark about the police making a "hick" town of St. Louis. He said the Police Board was trying to perform its duty and that if the court thought it hadn't done so or had violated an injunction, he ought to impose a fine.

"This would leave us in a position to take an appeal and get a final decision showing what games constitute gambling," Commissioner Kortjohn asserted.

Board to Consider Matter. The Judge said if the Police Commissioners would rather have a fine he had the power to set aside the order and accommodate them. It was entirely up to them, Commissioner Kortjohn then said he would see how the other members felt about it.

Chief Gerk said today that Judge Falkenhainer's decision in the case would not materially influence the present police crusade against gambling, but added that "we will be better off that kind of a game is left alone."

"This was only a test case," the chief said, "and we will comply with the court's order not to molest games in which the element of chance dominates the element of skill, but the Police Board's order to crush public gambling still stands and public gambling must be kept out of the city."

Plan as to Handbills. The police had been un-

DEAD.

James Washington, 35, a negro, 1215 North Sixteenth street.

INURED.

Edith Horwitz, 3, 1737 Morgan street, internal injuries, fractured foot and scalp lacerations.

Miss Harriet Solowich, 18, 1747 Morgan street, scalp lacerations and cuts and bruises.

Robert Schenke, 5, 905 Manchester road, Brentwood, fracture of skull, ribs and collar bone and internal injuries.

James Washington, 35 years old, a negro laborer, of 1215 North Sixteenth street, died at noon yesterday at People's Hospital, of internal injuries and several fractured ribs suffered April 10 when he was crushed between an automobile truck and a pile of barrels.

Washington was assisting in unloading barrels from the truck at 3500 Salena street and was caught between the truck and barrels when the truck driver, William Montgomery of 1719 Gratiot street, backed the truck closer to the curb.

His death was the fifty-second automobile fatality this year, compared to 41 during the same period last year.

Edith Horwitz, 3, of 1737 Morgan street, suffered a fractured foot, internal injuries and scalp lacerations and cuts and bruises, 18, of the same address, suffered lacerated scalp and cuts and bruises of the body at 5 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile truck which ran upon the sidewalk in front of 2601 Franklin avenue, where they were standing. The driver of the truck, Benjamin Tinsberg of 3507 North Broadway, said a defect in the steering gear caused him to lose control of the truck.

Robert Schenke, 5, of 905 Manchester road, Brentwood, suffered fractures of the skull, ribs and collar bone and internal injuries at 3:15 p. m. when struck by an automobile as he crossed the street in front of 5632 Cabanne avenue. The driver of the machine, William Schumann of 4742 Crest avenue University City, was arrested.

able to make cases against hand-book operators because of defective laws, but that those offenders would be persistently arrested and moved until they quit. He added that the same policy would be followed in stopping public dice and poker games, but that private games in homes would not be raided.

The hearing yesterday followed refusal by Assistant Circuit Attorney Wilson to issue a warrant against Marquardt. This refusal was in line with a stand taken earlier in the case by Circuit Attorney Sidney, who declared that the office was interested only in the prosecution of gambling games which promise large returns to professional operators and would not issue warrants in cases where harmless games of chance were operated, such as bridge, euchre and church lotto, bridge and euchre.

"There should be plenty for the police to do in suppressing major crime," Circuit Attorney Sidney declared. "As far as this office is concerned, it is going to worry about a few women getting together to play for a piece of taffy or a piece of aluminum. We will co-operate with the police in suppressing professional gambling, such as looking over a bet on the horse race, but we will not be concerned in a private election. If the police know who made the books let them bring in the evidence and we will issue the warrants."

WOMAN IMPOSTOR STEALS JEWELRY VALUED AT $3275

"Oh, You're Lizzie, the Maid," She Greets Employee, Then Asks to Appraise Valuables.

LEAVES IN AUTO WITH LOOT IN HANDBAG

Maid Alone When Visitor, After Telephoning, Called at Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Einstein.

"Oh, you're Lizzie, the maid, aren't you?" asked the stylishly attired woman stranger who called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Einstein, 6305 Pershing avenue, at 4:15 p. m. yesterday.

That bit of familiarity was the entering wedge by which the caller established herself falsely as a friend of the mistress of the house and suavely obtained $3275 worth of jewelry, not to forget the $13 butter dish which she carried away, too, for mere camouflage.

Miss Elizabeth Knapp, the maid, who has worked for the Einsteins five years, never had seen this woman before, but concluded that the woman knew her name and knew as much as she made it evident she knew about Mrs. Einstein's affairs, she must have been the friend of Mrs. Einstein that she claimed to be. Too late the maid realized that her conclusion was wrong and she is guessing still how the woman learned so much.

The caller's first question brought her the information that Mrs. Einstein was not home. Then she said, "Mrs. Einstein sent me over to appraise her jewelry." She flashed a bright smile upon the maid and chatted amiably for a few moments.

Put Valuables in Hand Bag. Convinced that it was all right, Miss Knapp went upstairs and got the jewelry, taking it to the woman, who held it in her hands. There were a ring set with seven diamonds, three emerald rings, a bowknot pin set with small diamonds, a platinum locket with 15 diamonds and a diamond-set pendant.

"Oh, yes," said the caller, still suave, "Mrs. Einstein wanted me to appraise her china."

She stepped to the buffet and took the butter dish, part of a set. Dish, rings, pin, locket and charm all were stowed in her hand bag with the remark that they would have to be taken away for appraisal.

"Well, good-by," the woman said, and went out to the dark sedan in which she had come and drove away. The maid, however, realized that the farewell meant "Good-by, jewelry."

Believes Woman Wore Wig. The woman was described as being only a little more than five feet tall, perhaps 30 years old, with unobbed hair so brightly red that the maid thought it might have been a wig. She wore a small hat and veil, blue coat, black dress and tan hose and patent leather shoes.

It was a domestic maid who greeted Mrs. Einstein when she returned from a party.

"Mrs. Einstein," she asked, "did you send any one here to have your jewelry appraised?"

"No."

"Then I'm afraid I did a terrible thing and gave your jewelry away."

In recent weeks, while Mrs. Einstein has been in New York, the maid received a number of telephone calls from a woman asking for her. The calls ceased after Mrs. Einstein's return, until 1:45 p. m. yesterday, when the voice at the other end of the wire inquired and was told "Mrs. Einstein was not at home. Miss Knapp thinks the voice was that of the stranger who is 'appraising the jewelry.'"

The loss is covered by insurance. The only other servant is a negro houseman. Einstein is secretary-treasurer of the St. Louis Frog and Switch Co.

Rembrandt Costing $510 At Auction Sale Later Was Sold for $100,000

Witness at Suit of Prince Reveals How It Was Hidden Beneath an Indifferent Painting.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, April 24.—A Rembrandt portrait, bought in 1913 by Dr. Wilhelm R. Valentiner, Rembrandt expert, from its unknown owner as the work of Karel Fabritius, an obscure painter, for $510, has been sold by Dr. Valentiner for $100,000. Since its sale by Dr. Valentiner it has been resold for $300,000.

Dr. Valentiner revealed this when he testified yesterday as an expert on behalf of Joseph E. Widener of Philadelphia, who is being sued by Prince Lix Yousouff for the return of two Rembrandt portraits.

Dr. Valentiner was being cross-examined by the Prince's lawyer, Clarence J. Shearn. As an illustration of the difficulties of making art valuations, Dr. Valentiner said:

"In 1912 a portrait was sold to me for $510. I sold it much later for $75,000. Later it was sold for $100,000."

Bought It at Auction Sale. "Oh," said Shearn, "when you bought it you didn't know what it was, is that it?"

"No," said Dr. Valentiner, smiling. "I knew what it was but others didn't. I got it at an auction sale in the American Art Galleries."

A young man at the counsel table sat up suddenly. As Dr. Valentiner left the witness stand the young man accented him.

"You bought that picture from the collection of George G. Benham, didn't you?" he asked.

"Why, yes," answered Dr. Valentiner.

"I thought so. He is my uncle," said the young man.

Top Painting Removed. A small auction in which the Benjamin collection was sold, Dr. Valentiner bought a portrait entitled "The Advocate," painted by Karel Fabritius over a portrait by Rembrandt of Rembrandt's son.

There was nothing to tell anyone but the sharp-eyed connoisseur that beneath the indifferent painting of the young lawyer Benjamin had bought for $150 was a Rembrandt portrait in the best manner of that artist. Dr. Valentiner bought the portrait and had the top painting removed, finding underneath the one which it now appears has brought him a small fortune.

Dr. Valentiner testified that the Rembrandts of Prince Yousouff were not worth, in an outright sale, any more than the $100,000 (approximately $500,000) Widener paid for them. "The Prince is seeking to show that Widener did not buy the portraits but only took them as security for a loan. Part of his contention is that the portraits were obviously worth much more than Widener gave."

FELLED WITH A MILK CAN. Woman in the Hospital After Fight—Cross Charges Filed.

Mrs. Lena Hirschler, 43 years old, 6815 Fyler avenue, is at city hospital with two lacerations on the left side of her head as the result of an argument and fight at 2:15 p. m. yesterday with a neighbor, Mrs. Johanna Belfuss, 45, of 6811 Fyler avenue. Both women were arrested on cross charges of peace disturbance and their cases were continued in Police Court today until May 8.

Mrs. Hirschler and Mrs. Belfuss met in front of 6801 Fyler avenue as Mrs. Belfuss was returning from a grocery store. The arising of differences soon took on the aspects of an argument, and the argument brought a fight, in the course of which Mrs. Belfuss' can of condensed milk came into contact with Mrs. Hirschler's head. She fell to the sidewalk and was taken to city hospital.

ELEANOR HORTON NAMED PRESIDENT OF TOWN CLUB

Elected After Hotly Contested Campaign in Which Popular Political Methods Were Employed

At a banquet followed by the annual business meeting, the first to be held by the Town Club in its new building, announcement was made of the election of Miss Eleanor Horton, former chairman of the House Committee, as president, defeating her opponent, Miss Myrtle Wood, in the ratio of two to one.

The election, which was by mailed ballots, developed into a hotly contested campaign by partisans of both candidates. In which supporters of the minority candidate had resorted to popular political methods, circulating post cards with the names of Miss Horton and of Mrs. A. E. Elbs, candidate for director scratched, and with laudatory comments upon the qualifications of Miss Wood, chief among which being the excellent work she has done as secretary of the Town Club Investment Board.

A Factional Fight. These methods stirred up a bitter factional fight, which not only were reproved tacitly by the majority of the membership as shown in the election results but open by Miss Matilda Gocks, retiring president of the club who in her farewell address and recommendation to the incoming board took occasion to advise that the by-laws be amended so as to obviate such tactics in the future. Miss Wood's defeat had been due chiefly to the overzealous methods pursued by her supporters, she remarked.

Another recommendation by Miss Gocks was that the rules intended to keep the club free of bias on political and social questions be revised to permit the hearing of partisan candidates in the stress of local political and social campaigns and participation in public affairs.

The officers elected besides Miss Horton as president were: Miss Elizabeth Cueny, vice president; Miss Melvina F. Bowen, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Tower, treasurer; Miss Lotta Tichenor, auditor; Mrs. T. M. Syman and Mrs. Frederick J. Taubert, directors, three-year term; Miss Geraldine Lerritt, Miss Lucy Cable Elliott, directors, two-year term; Mrs. A. E. Elbs and Miss Charlotte L. Dodge, directors, one-year term.

Landlord, Fighting Refund in Rent, Tells Court It Wasn't a Big One.

It was on the fifteenth of January that the flats at 4334 Page boulevard caught fire. They were owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Leve, who lived on the first floor and the second floor was rented to Mrs. M. Weinberger. After the fire
Mrs. Weinberger moved out. But on the sixth of January she has paid her month's rent of $45 in advance, and by a process of arithmetical calculation, she decided she had only used up $15 of the $45.
She immediately asked Leve to return $45.

Now Leve heard her request, but he could see no justice in it. He admitted there had been a conflagration. But it had not made his flat unfit for tenancy, for he still resided in it. So Leve refused to return $45 or any dollars at all, and Mrs. Weinberger saw a lawyer and filed suit.

When Leve heard Mrs. Weinberger had filed suit and hired a lawyer, he remembered that a light fixture was missing from the flat.
Mrs. Weinberger had occupied and he remembered having asked Mrs.
Weinberger for the fixture and not having got it. So Leve hired a lawyer and filed a counter claim against Mrs. Weinberger for the $15 Leve thought the fixture was worth. And that is how they all happened to be in Justice of the Peace Moore's court yesterday.

"That flat was all right," Leve testified, as Mrs. Leve had done before him. "There never would have been a fire if the janitor Mrs.
Weinberger employed hadn't started it in Mrs. Weinberger's basement. Mrs. Weinberger could still be in there if she wanted to. But she didn't want to. That was the trouble. Mrs. Weinberger had already picked a new place to move to before the fire. That's why she says she couldn't live in my flat.
As for the fixture, it was a good fixture. I know. I bought it at my own hardware store. It cost me $15. It's still worth $15."

"Just a minute," said Mrs. Wein-berger's attorney. "Wasn't there a hole in the ceiling of that room
the fixture was in that you could see the sky through?" Leve admitted there was a hole, but he said it wasn't big enough to keep anybody from living in his flat.

Judge Moore took the case under advisement and said he'd decide who'd get what before the end of the week.

TEMPERATURE OF 94 RECORDED AT JEFFERSON CITY YESTERDAY

Heat Records for April Established at Several Cities in Other States.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 24.—
Midsummer temperatures that visited Missouri and Kansas yesterday and the day before had not occurred last night with the fall of rain in many sections of the two States. The temperatures established new high records for April at many points in the United States. Jefferson City, situated in a temperature of 94 yesterday,
the highest reported in Missouri.
Rain fell over most of Kansas, following three days of heavy wind.
Nearly an inch of rain fell in Northwestern Missouri last night.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Several cities in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee hung up heat records for April yesterday, but Washington was warmer than any of them, although its 93 caused no statistical excitement. Yuma and Phoenix, Ariz., which usually carry off the top honors in the Weather Bureau's daily temperature tournaments, meanwhile were enjoying what amounted relatively to a cold wave, with a 72 and a 68.
Butte, Mont., had a heavy snow.

nue, and jerking loose from the

TO ASK FOR LIQUOR INDICTMENT OF ST. LOUIS MEN

Dry Agents to Present Evidence of River Rum Running to New Orleans Grand Jury.

INVESTIGATOR HERE FOR LAST 6 MONTHS

Subpoenas Are Said to Be Ready for Service on Several St. Louisans and Kansas Cityans.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Indictment of several St. Louis, Kansas City, Cairo, Ill., and Indianapolis business men, on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, will be asked of the Federal grand jury here within a fortnight.

Federal officials stated today that the Government is ready to lay its case of rum running from the Gulf to Missouri and Indiana cities before the jury.

Federal officials admit that the grand jury is to begin consideration of the rum running cases within two weeks. They will not state who will be summoned.

It is known that John B. Matthews, prohibition agent now in St. Louis, has subpoenas to serve on men there and that he has been instructed to go to Kansas City to serve other papers. But the officials are silent on names.

Matthews has been working in St. Louis for nearly six months and it is said that by seizing a code book, telegrams from telegraph companies, books in certain concerns and other places that he has learned who were the men in St. Louis who supplied the money for the shipment of liquor seized at Chaminade siding in St. Louis County last December, and for other shipments since seized near Kansas City and other points.

Matthews is due to return to New Orleans in two weeks, when the grand jury will be given the case before a summer adjournment of the Federal District Court is taken.

Dry agents admit that several St. Louis people have been summoned, but won't say who, declaring that if the names were known that they might try to dodge service. Many sensational disclosures are expected to follow the return of Matthews here, but for the present O. D. Jackson, Federal prohibition director, and others are keeping silent, except to say that action may be expected at any time in the St. Louis case.

HARVARD LAMPOON HELD UP
Some Features of Publication Held to Be Unlawful.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 24.—The April 18 issue of the Lamoon, a publication conducted by Harvard students, was held today by the Post Office Department to be unlawful. Its circulation already had been held up by the Boston police, and the postmaster there, because they regarded some of its features as unfit for publication and in violation of the postal laws.

The issue contained, among other things, a cartoon of the Goddess of Liberty minus most of her clothing. Acting Solicitor General of the Post Office Department, after looking over the magazine, notified the Boston postmaster he had been quite correct in holding the matter unlawful.

Quits as Held of E. N. Britch, Jr. by the Associated Press.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 24.—Adolph Kraus of Chicago, president of the Independent Order of E. N. Britch for 26 years, retired yesterday at the closing session of the annual convention of that organization here and Alfred M. Cohen of Cincinnati was elected as his successor. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Lucius L. Solomon, San Francisco; second vice president, Archibald A. Marks, New Orleans.

30,000 AWAIT PAPAL BLESSING

Vast Throng Fills St. Peter's Square and Packs Great Basilica.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.

Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., New York World and Post-Dispatch.

ROME, April 24.—The activities of Holy Year again are giving the Pope an extremely strenuous week. When he descended to St. Peter's yesterday morning there were no less than 30,000 pilgrims awaiting him. At dawn enormous masses of faithful Catholics began to move toward the Basilica, chanting hymns and bearing banners of parochial religious associations. Vast St. Peter's square was a strange sight between 5 and 6 o'clock, already filled with men, women and children and priests waiting for the opening of the Basilica doors. By 7 o'clock the temple was so full that the doors were closed, many pilgrims waiting outside, prostrated on the ground with faces turned east.

The pontiff descended by a private way at 7:15, with the papal court, his passage giving the signal for moving scenes. The vast crowds fell on knees and implored benediction. Many women begged indulgence. One held up a blind baby and sobbed, "Give him his sight, Holy Father."

When the pontiff reached the papal throne, mass began, lasting half an hour. Imparting the pontifical blessing, the Pope then left the Basilica, returning to the Vatican by the same private way.

The doors reopened and the vast crowd slowly filled the square, a great black human sea without a scrap of color except white faces and the bright colors of the banners of Italian pilgrims and the national banners brought to Rome by a thousand Rumanians from Transylvania.

Four thousand Americans from Baltimore and others from Buffalo, Philadelphia and Albany are expected before the end of the month, besides 300 teachers from Vienna and 1200 Hungarians. As many groups arrive unexpectedly the committee charged by the Pope with housing pilgrims have busy time, but somehow or other all are housed.

Cardinal O'Connell Tells of Trip of Boston Pilgrims

NEW YORK, April 24.—Cardinal O'Connell of Boston came home last night on the Red Star liner Lapland from a pilgrimage to Rome. He headed 500 Boston pilgrims who went abroad in February.

The pilgrimage, said the Cardinal, was most enjoyable and successful. The Boston pilgrims constituted the largest group of Americans to visit the celebration in the Holy City, he added.

"The Holy Father, I learned, understands English," he said. "I asked if I might make my address before him to the Boston pilgrims in English and he said: 'Please do. I understand your English, but I do not understand the English English. I do the English of America.'"

He said the Pope spoke of the United States as a great power to be used for the pacification of the world.

Cardinal O'Connell brought four bricks from the Basilica and two from the Church of St. Mary the Major, bestowed upon him by Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state.

Italy, said the Cardinal, is more prosperous today than ever in his memory. He found the most perfect order and discipline, and believes that country is recovering more quickly than any other European nation.

Ambassador Fletcher is the most efficient American Ambassador I have ever met," said the Cardinal.

25,000 Barrels of Oil Burned. By the Associated Press. ELDORADO, Ark., April 24.—Approximately 25,000 barrels of oil, six steel tanks, two derricks and other equipment owned by the Woolly Petroleum Co. of Shreveport, La., were destroyed in a fire in the oil field 10 miles north of here, started when a burning amber from a brush heap landed in an open pit of oil yesterday.

Clean them with Energine

"Goodness, but gloves do get soiled quickly!" "They certainly do, my dear, but do you know that Energine makes them clean again in no time! About two good rubs and my gloves are spotless every time I put them on..."

Energine comes in handy cans. Leaves no odor. 35c at the drug store.

PAPE WOULD CUT OUT PARK TOURIST CAMP

Commissioner in Annual Report Favors Establishing One on Outskirts of City.

Park Commissioner Pape, in his annual report to Director of Public Welfare Council, under the budget allowance last year and expressed the hope that the salary increase of approximately $1,000, now given policemen and firemen will not result in a further cut of the Park Department allowance.

Pape points out the 2000 trees were destroyed in the severe storm of July and that many others were damaged. This entailed a great expenditure which could not be foreseen.

He says that the appropriation for 1924-25 was $719,428.10, an increase of only $51,806 over the previous year, although salaries had been increased 10 per cent meanwhile.

He recommends the elimination of the tourist camp in Forest Park and believes that one should be established on the outskirts of the city.

He outlines expenditures of $226,516 of bond issue funds, including the $30,000 paid for Lemay Park, Thirteenth and Arsenal Streets. The report commends the Municipal Theater Association for improvements completed or in the course of construction at the theater, which include a $12,000 underground comfort station. He also suggests that the 1926 appropriation for park band concerts be increased to its level of five years ago when it was $16,000.

SCHUMANN-HEINK TO SING AGAIN IN GRAND OPERA

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Schumann-Heink is going to celebrate her golden anniversary in grand opera at the Metropolitan next season.

Years ago it was thought Schumann-Heink had made her farewell appearance in an operatic role. It was considered natural that she might continue for a long while to sing in concert, but to go through a heavy Wagnerian role at 65—the opera has not known such a thing in this country.

The daughter of an Austrian army officer and an Italian mother, Mrs. Schumann-Heink was being prepared in convent for a social career when one of the nuns was struck by the rare quality of her voice. There followed the inevitable visit to a great teacher and the inevitable first disappointment. The maestro brutally told the girl that her face, figure and voice all pointed in one direction—the sewing machine.

Mrs. Schumann-Heink has been at the sewing machine many times since then, but she has been there as the most domestic of the successful opera stars.

After her first rebuff the girl returned to the convent. But the teacher had been more convinced than he wanted the girl to know. He recommended to the conductor of the Royal Opera at Dresden and there just 49 years ago she made her debut in the chorus. Minor roles soon followed and a contract for three years at $500 a year filled her heart with thanksgiving. Schumann-Heink's debut in this country was in 1898.

Girl 7 Killed By Truck

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 24.—Mildred Yates, 7 years old, died in a local hospital today, 20 minutes after having been run down by a lumber firm's truck driven by Gus Kreidemeyer. The driver said the accident occurred as he was attempting to turn into an alley. He says he stopped the truck and that the child also stopped and then we both started ahead at the same time.

Ex-Governor Pays Fine

ALLENTOWN, N. C., April 24.—Pleading guilty to one of three counts of an indictment charging violations of the State banking laws, Wilson G. Harvey, former Governor of South Carolina, and president of the Citizens Enterprise Bank of Charleston, yesterday was sentenced to serve four months in the penitentiary or pay a fine of $120. He paid the fine.

CITIZENS' BODY MOVES TO SPEED BOND WORK

Acting Chairman to Confer
With Kinsey on Possible Change in Ordinance.

The Citizens' Supervisory Bond Issue Committee yesterday authorized Acting Chairman Alvin G. Carpenter to confer with President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service on the practicability of amending the ordinance specifying the amount of bonds to be sold each year to conform to the charter amendment passed by the voters at the election April 7.

Frank H. Gerhart, a member of the committee, said that since the committee has authorized a $12-000,000 program of work for 1925,
the ordinance limiting the expenditure to $5,000,000 should be repealed and blanket authority be given the Mayor and Comptroller to sell bonds in such amounts as are necessary when the proceeds of the bonds are required.

Charles J. Dolan, Associate City Counselor, told the committee that he did not believe an amendment of the ordinance was required, as the ordinance as drawn does not limit the amount of appropriations on bond issue projects, but simply states that bonds are not to be sold in excess of the quota fixed in the ordinance each year.

Dwight D. Currie of the committee said it was his opinion the people by their vote on the amendment had removed all restrictions on the city officials relating to the amount of bonds to be sold at any particular time, and left the matter to the discretion of city officials to sell the bonds to pay for work
as it proceeds.

Carpenter said it was his opinion the amount of bonds to be sold in any one year would not exceed the amount set out in the ordinance.

The charter amendment authorized the city to enter into contracts for bond work without having the cash in the treasury in advance.

SAFE ROBBED SECOND TIME IN TWO MONTHS

Burglars Obtain $100 at Office of Butler Company—Five Other Robberies.

Burglars entered the offices of the Paul A. Schulte Butter Co., 901 South Grand boulevard, last night, for the second time within two months, obtaining $100 in cash and wrecking the safe. In the previous robbery $200 was taken by burglars, who knocked the combination from the same safe.

Five other robberies were reported between 3 p. m. and midnight. Burglars entering the home of T. C. Hunsake, 703 North Berthold avenue, in the absence of the family, took jewelry valued at $300.

George Schelp, chauffeur for the Blue Valley Butter Co., 2722 Pine boulevard, reported that while making a delivery in the 1700 block on North Taylor avenue at 4 p. m., an armed man forced him into an alley and took $100 of the company's money.

An armed robber held up Mrs. Ella Dalton in her confectionery store, 809 Loughborough avenue, at 8:45 p. m. and escaped with $8, which he took from the cash register. A. J. Schulte, manager of a Kroger grocery at 5425 North Kingshighway, reported two armed men held him up in the store at 2 p. m. and escaped with $15 from the cash drawer.

Elmer Fuchs, 2015 Olive street, reported that while he was seated on a bench in Reservoir Park at 10:30 p. m., two armed men robbed him of $25.

Two policemen attracted to a desolate section bordering railroad yards at the foot of St. Louis avenue shortly after midnight, reported that three men jumped up and ran at their approach. The men, who carried the policemen, who returned to the scene and found 2100 pounds of sugar in 100-pound sacks piled in the undergrowth.

MAN IN THE TILTED DERBY CLEARS UP BRACELET MYSTERY
Gave $1100 Diamond Bracelet to Daughters of Lawyer and Judge "Out of Gratitude."

NEW YORK, April 24.—Harry C. Moffatt, of unknown address and generous tendencies yesterday afternoon strove nonchalantly from the office of Robert Haskell, attorney at 314 Montague street, Brooklyn, with his smile and his derby's tilt more pronounced than ever. A great weight was off his chest. He had cleared up the diamond bracelet mystery, which had to do with the receipt of two bracelets, each valued at $1100, by Miss Grace Haskell, the attorney's daughter, and Miss Louise Haskell, daughter of County Judge Reuben L. Haskell.

"Mr. Haskell," said Moffatt, as he shoved his derby far back, stuck his thumbs in his belt and smiled blandly. "I have come to confess that I saw the diamond bracelet to your daughter, Grace, and the one to Miss Louise."

In view of Moffatt's persistent denials, up to yesterday, that he had anything to do with the gifts, Haskell showed surprise, although a jeweler had said Moffatt bought the bracelets and there was other circumstantial evidence for—or against—Moffatt.

"Well," said Haskell, "why did you send them?" "I sent them," replied Moffatt, "because of gratitude to you and the Judge for what you have done for me. I thought it best to send them anonymously. Why, if I had a million dollars I'd give it to you and the Judge and leave it to you to care for me the rest of my days." Haskell could not be resentful in the face of such generosity. Moffatt yanked at the tilted derby, said: "That's all I have to say," smiled, moved to the door, and now, Mr. Haskell, Goodbye."

$2000 RAISED FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Dr. Henry S. Curtis Reports Favorable Prospects of Obtaining $15,000 Fund.

A campaign for funds to prevent physical education from being dropped in the schools of Missouri is being conducted by Dr. Henry S. Curtis, State director of physical education and hygiene, as a result of the State Legislature's action in cutting off the $15,000 appropriation for the work for 1925-26. The Senate slashed the budget to $1500
after the full amount had been approved by the House.

Dr. Curtis, who returned yesterday from Kansas City, where he raised $2000, said he expects to obtain $2000 more from there and $4000 or $5000 from St. Louis, enough to assure continuation of the program.

One individual subscription for $1000 has been received according to Dr. Curtis. It came from William Volker of Kansas City, and several organizations of that city, including the Parent-Teachers Association, Eighth District Women's Club and the Public School Athletic League, gave $1000 more. The central committee of the American Legion also has voted to give one-tenth of its Americanization fund, which is expected to be $4000 or $5000. Letters have been sent to all county superintendents asking them to give demonstrations, on May day, of the physical culture work being done in public schools.
The $15,000 fund, Dr. Curtis said, provides health training and playground service for 700,000 school children for two years at a cost of about one cent a year per child.
To drop the program now, he said, would mean loss of the results of the past two years' work.

Injunction on Ship Sale Lifted.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 23.—The restraining order against sale by the Shipping Board of the five vessels and service of the California-Orient Line to the Dollar interests, was dissolved yesterday by the District of Columbia Supreme Court through the signing of a dismissal order. Immediately the board proceeded to take up with R. Stanley Dollar, vice president of the Dollar Line the drafting of the sale contract, and Dollar in a statement said he expected to take over the first of the ships early next month.

FISS U. HEAD QUITS AFTER ROW WITH STUDENTS

Retirement of President of Negro College Is Culmination of Quarrel That Led to Expulsions.

WHITE PEOPLE OF NASHVILLE WITH HIM

One Accusation Was That He Took Singers to White Club Through Servants' Entrance.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Dr.
Fayette A. McKenzie, president of Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., who has been the center of clashes
with the student body and alumni over his policies, has tendered his resignation to the board of trustees, to take effect at the close of the fiscal school year, Aug. 31.
The resignation was accepted at a meeting of the board of trustees at the office of Paul D. Cravath, chairman, yesterday. Dr. Mc-Kenzie was voted an extra year's salary to permit him to take a vacation.

No successor is being considered, but the opinion is general that he will be a white man. No expressed sentiment exists among the students or alumni for the selection of a negro president, the consensus of opinion being that the time is not opportune. What is most desired is a president who will maintain a sympathetic and liberal attitude toward negro education.

Student Strike.
Dr. McKenzie's resignation is the culmination of a bitter controversy. Last February the students staged a demonstration on the campus in protest against disciplinary measures invoked by the president. Members of the senior class were arrested and imprisoned, charged with inciting a riot.
They were given suspended sentences in police court next day and a few hours later were expelled from the university.

The student body showed its disapproval of the suspension by going on strike. While some returned, the enrollment has been comparatively small since the incident.

L. Hollingsworth Wood, vice president of the board, went to Nashville to make peace overtures,
but he found divergent groups so widely apart—the white people of Nashville demanding Dr. Mc-Kenzie's retention and the majority of negroes clamoring for his dismissal—that he called a meeting of the Greater Fisk Committee, composed of trustees and alumni.

What Students Demanded.
The students asked for freedom from oppression; relief from the spy system; permission to have student activities; sympathetic instructors; a student council; reorganization of athletics; permission to conduct a student publication;
fraternities and sororities.

Dr. McKenzie declared Fisk has maintained its right to have restraints; that while short sleeves and low necks are not permitted ordinarily there is no limitation on the dress of girls except it must not be of expensive material, that it was not wise to permit smoking; that mixed dancing is barred.

Dr. McKenzie was accused of imposing the views of Southern white people. He was charged with taking 15 or 20 girls from the glee club, 13 a white club, leading them through the servants' entrance and have had them sing in a basement to Southern white men who smoked and laughed.

In forming contacts with the white people of Nashville, the president of Fisk University argued he was making friends for the university. Fisk University has been a leading negro institution of higher education for 50 years. The faculty is white.

Woman and Son Missing 15 Days.
Adolph Vinne of 1413 Buchanan street, has requested a police search for his wife, Effie, 28 years old, who disappeared from their home April 9, taking with her their 4-year-old son. Vinne said he could assign no reason for his wife's action.

REPUBLICANS MAY ATTACK VALIDITY OF IGOE BALLOTS

City Committee Said to Plan a Fight Against Those Cast by Voters for Miller in Primary.

The Republican City Committee, preparing to resist William Igou's suit contesting Victor J. Miller's election as Mayor, is planning to question the validity of the ballots of persons who voted for Miller in the primary March 13, and who voted for Igou in the election April 7.

At the time of the primary, it was believed that many Democrats voted in the Republican primary, and that most of them voted for Miller, on the theory that he would be the easiest man for Igou, the prospective Democratic nominee, to beat. These Democrats naturally returned to their own party at the election, voting for Igou.

Provision of Primary Law.
The primary law, in section 4541 of the Missouri statutes, has a provision which is intended to keep voters of each party from voting in the primary of the other party. The section says:

It shall be the duty of the duty of the challenger to challenge, and the duty of the judges of election to reject the ballot of any person attempting to vote other than the ticket of the party with which he is known to be affiliated, unless such person, when challenged, obligates himself, by oath or affirmation, administered by one of the judges, to support the party nominees of the ticket he is supporting in the following general election. All judges of the election shall have authority and are empowered to administer such oath or affirmation, and any person offering to vote who shall fail or refuse to take or make such oath or affirmation when demanded by such challenger, or required by any judge, shall not be allowed to vote at such primary election.

This provision has been in the statutes for several past elections, including the hotly contested Democratic senatorial primary of 1922, in which it was charged that many Republicans voted in the Democratic primary for Reed. It has been discussed frequently, but no practical use has ever been made of it.

The section is considered unenforceable as there is no provision for determining whether any person, even if sworn, voted accordingly, or for disfranchising in the election anyone who voted contrary to it. It is generally considered that the voter has a right to change his mind, at any time before an election, whether he voted in the primary or not.

Questionnaire to Election Officials.
The Republican City Committee has sent out a questionnaire to Republican judges and clerks of election, which has 13 queries. Two of these queries are:

How many voters in your precinct voted for Miller at the primary and thereafter voted for Igou at the election on April 7? Give the names and street address of all voters who voted for Miller at the primary March 13, and thereafter voted for Igou at the election on April 7.

The second of these queries, which relates to names and addresses of voters, cannot be answered by judges and clerks without violation of their official oaths. Chairman Eigel of the Election Board said today: "Democratic Commissioner Player concurred in this statement. The oath of judges and clerks declares that 'I will not disclose how any individual has voted at any election, unless required to do so as a witness in a proper judicial proceeding.'"

Another question in the committee's questionnaire, which appears to be open to the same objection, is: "Give the name and address of any person who voted illegally on April 7."

Order Disregarded, Charge.
The judges and clerks are asked to state how they counted a ballot on which Miller's name was scratched and Igou's name written in, and vice versa, and how many scratched ballots of each description were counted in the precinct.

The Election Board, which ordered judges and clerks to observe strictly the crossmarking and no-scratching provisions of the blanket ballot law, directed them to count for Miller the ballots where Miller's name was scratched and Igou's name written in, and to count for Igou the ballots where Igou was scratched and Miller written in.

However, the Republican leaders say they have learned that this order was not followed in all the precincts, and that in some precincts the judges and clerks disregarded instructions and counted for Igou the ballots where Miller had been scratched and Igou written in.

The Republican judges and clerks are also asked to state how ballots were counted which were marked by vertical lines through the Republican and Socialist tickets, or through the Democratic or Socialist tickets. The purpose of those who did this was to vote the unmarked ticket straight, but the method was not in accord with the law.

The other questions are directed to bring out any possible irregularity in the handling and counting of William H. Hughes, secretary of the Igou contest committee, has received reports from Democratic judges and clerks in 424 of the 621 city precincts. He said today that these reports showed 217 ballots irregularly scratched and marked so as to show an evident intention to vote for Igou, which were counted for Miller. If these ballots, on a recount, were merely thrown out, Miller's plurality of 3129 would be more than overcome. Hughes said that the remaining 290 precincts if they were counted for Igou, they would give Igou a lead greater than Miller's present lead. He assumes that the remaining 290 precincts will show a similar condition.

PRIEST IS A POWER IN ITALIAN POLITICS

ROME, Italy, April 5.—Don Luigi Sturzo, Sicilian priest and voluntary exile, for a time at least, from Italy, is one of the most powerful figures behind the scenes of Italian politics. He is the uncrowned, or rather decrowned, leader of the Italian popular party, which, though it has not the formal approval of the Vatican, includes a large proportion of the devout Italian Catholics in their capacity as Italian citizens.

Don Sturzo is credited with having fathered the idea that as citizens loyal Catholics should make the influence of their faith felt in practical life by the use of their votes, as the German Catholics had already done. The Vatican, although it takes no part in internal politics, approved the idea that Catholics should organize for political action as they thought best. The result was that within a few months after the world war the popular party had gained about a fifth of the seats in the Italian Parliament, with Don Sturzo as its undisputed leader.

No Surrender to Fascism. When the Fascist regime came into power it granted many of the demands of the Populars, but demanded, in turn, that the party should support the Government unconditionally. For a time it appeared that the party would consent. But Don Sturzo threw the weight of his influence violently against the deal. Only a small fraction of the party seceded and joined the Fascist ranks.

The Fascist Government declared war on the Populars, who responded with a campaign of opposition hardly surpassed in all Europe for courage and tenacity. The guiding spirit of this campaign was Don Sturzo.

Last Summer the Vatican issued orders that the clergy desert from political activity. Don Sturzo obeyed and resigned his office in the Popular party. But the party was a whole only increased the vehemence of its opposition. It is no secret that in the provinces the clergy, in their capacity as citizens, are almost unanimously fighting the Mussolini regime.

Writing Book on Politics. Don Sturzo is living in London and is reported to be working on a book on politics. But no one doubts that should a change come in Italian political life, he would reappear on the scene.

If he did he would be one of the four or five most powerful men in Italian politics. While no breath of suspicion has ever rested upon him in regard to matters of dogma in his practical policy he has been extremely modern and has sponsored Catholic trade unions, Catholic co-operative societies and other works for the amelioration of the masses.

ARMY RADIO NETWORK OVER COUNTRY SAVES U. S. BIG SUM

Messages Handled for Various Departments Would Cost $100,000 a Year.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—President Coolidge's economy program has found an active ally in radio which, army signal corps officers say, saves the Government about $100,000 annually in communication charges. The army handles the message business of many of the departments inland, just as the navy takes care of Government coastwise and off-shore traffic, and the signal corps has built up what its officers term "the most complete and perfected radio network in the world."

The message center of the War Department, located in the Munitions Building, is the nerve focus of the radio system. Twelve stations link the various corps area headquarters with Washington, and within each of the corps units there are radio stations for inter-area work, comprising 60 stations in all. There are 21 Alaskan stations, and 17 distributed through the insular possessions and Panama. Army transports also are equipped with radio.

The signal corps is using this Government business to train its personnel; the equipment and traffic being controlled from Washington. At Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and Salt Lake City, Utah, are installed 10-kilowatt tube transmitters to relay transcontinental messages. From Washington to New York and also to Baltimore, the corps maintains leased telegraph wires, but the rest of the system is all-radio. Installation and operation are done entirely by signal corps personnel.

Pope Plus Is Retaining Health. Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News. ROME, April 5.—Pope Plus XI, retains the sturdy constitution he acquired years ago while climbing mountains. Recently during a snowfall (a rare thing in Rome) he started for his usual afternoon walk in the Vatican gardens. An attendant insisted upon carrying an umbrella over the pontiff, but it was firmly refused. The small bit of out-of-doors confined within the walls of the Vatican is all that remains to the Pope for the rest of his life of the great world of nature, which he used to love. He is determined to make the most of it.

FALL DOWN SHAFT
FATAL TO WIDOW, 75
Mrs. Lavina C. Scott Suffered
Internal Injuries in 15-Foot Plunge Saturday.
Mrs. Lavina C. Scott, 75 years old, a widow, died yesterday at Deaconess Hospital as the result of internal injuries and fractures of the left leg and right ankle, suffered last Saturday when she stepped into an elevator shaft and fell 15 feet to the basement of the Stumpf Building, 3903 West Belle place, where she resided.
Mrs. Scott told police after the accident that she entered the building about 7:30 a. m. and, seeing the gate of the elevator, which is operated automatically, open, stepped into the shaft, thinking that the elevator was there. Other residents, attracted by her screams, found her lying on the floor of the basement.
The negro janitor, who was using the elevator when the accident occurred, said he shut the elevator gate before ascending.
The funeral of Mrs. Scott, a member of Rose Hill Chapter No. 10 of the Order of Eastern Star, will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday from an under-taking chapel at 5921 Easton avenue to Valhalla Cemetery.

HOUGHTON ARRIVES IN LONDON TO TAKE OVER EMBASSY
American Denies That He Brought Disarmament Plan With Him From Washington.
(Copyright, 1925.)
LONDON, April 24.—Alanson B.
Houghton, the new American Ambassador, arrived in London yesterday and went direct to Crewe House, the aristocratic mansion of which he has taken over the lease
from Secretary of State Kellogg.
Mrs. Houghton, who arrived Wednesday from Paris, was waiting him at the house.
Houghton was met at Plymouth
by representatives of the embassy and many newspaper men and photographers. He spurned with the reporters, and the only definite statement he would make was a denial that he brought with him from Washington any disarmament plan. The correspondent understands, however, that Houghton is prepared to discuss with Foreign Secretary Chamberlain the idea of President Coolidge and Kellogg regarding a new Washington conference.
London society is looking forward to more lively social entertainments at the embassy than for many years past, as Miss Matilda Houghton, now in school in Switzerland, will visit her father for the London season.

Labor, was appointed today to be a ifornia district.

Operators Close Six Mines,
By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 23.—T.
M. Dodson, vice president in charge of operations of the Pittsburgh Coal Co., has ordered the closing down of six mines in the Western Pennsylvania region, following the refusal of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, to negotiate with the operators for a lower wage scale. Twelve other mines of the company will be closed within three weeks unless the men "do something to help meet the competition of nonunion labor in other fields," said Dodson.

HUGHES URGES WORLD SESSION ON LAW OF NATIONS

Only Through Its Clarification and Codification Can Peace Be Made Sure.

PRESSES ADHERENCE TO WORLD COURT
declares It Idle to Expect New Tribunal Can Be Set Up in Place of Present One.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—
World peace can be ultimately effected only through the clarification and codification of international law, and this is to be accomplished only through a great conference of representatives of all nations of the earth, former secretary of State Hughes, as president of the American Society of International Law, told members of that association at their annual meeting.

Speaking on "the development of international law," he asserted that the United States should lead the way toward such a conference, and reiterated his belief that "the appropriate support of the Permanent Court of International Justice by the Government of the United States will not be defined much longer."

It was not his purpose to restate reasons he believed the United States should support the permanent court, Hughes said, but simply to emphasize the incalculable advantage of having such a tribunal to aid in the development of international law, to reinforce the existing sentiment through reference to the exercise of its jurisdiction and acceptance of its decisions.

Not improbably, he continued, nations may thus be led to themselves more readily of necessary international legislation to perfect the law
to satisfy enlarged conceptions of international justice.
"We All-Sufficient Remedy."
Every suggestion intended to be made should be accepted and with no matter what trying conditions and trials of patience result, Hughes insisted, that the "one must not fail to remember that no progress can be made unless we have an atmosphere of peace and a disposition to lift up above capriciousness."
In this spirit, he added, that regarding the development of international law, not as an external or efficient remedy, but as a means of correcting the evils that afflict us."

He continued, "we are convinced that it is merely a matter of time when we shall see the growth of civilization itself."

When we consider the disposition of violence between nations, it is not surprising that progress has been so slight. But precisely because we are dealing with civilization itself
we are not surprised.

Importance to the development of international law, which he deemed to be a record of judgments of the conscience of mankind.

He cited the relations of the United States and Canada as an excellent example of peace between two nations and saw in them inspiration for "directing the conduct of nations to the Pacific

servation of principles and rules governing voluntary actions."

However, he said, the best history of the independence of nations will be found in the development of the law.

Through world-wide development of law, Hughes continued, "we hope to make measurable progress to that degree of civilization in the area outside the law, which will cultivate and some time make dominant the

The Town's Greatest

THIRTY-FIVE-DOLLAR Suits are as plentiful this Spring as dandelions in a cow pasture, but they are not S & S Specials (T-T-T*). If you find a rose growing in that same field it would attract as much attention as the S. and S. Special is attracting among $35 Spring suits.

For the only thing familiar about this big special is the price. The quality is a rare bird. Seldom are such woollens and such fine tailoring lavished on a $35 suit.

And when you stop to consider there is an extra pair of trousers as well it requires little "selling" on our part to amputate your indecision. We are determined to get all the young fellows in town talking about our young men's clothes and giving you MORE than you can get anywhere else is the best way.

All the snappy Spring weaves are here in London lavender, Piccadilly fawn, aviator blue and crayon stripes in clever new contrasts.

A street full of chaps in these new S & S Specials (T-T-T*) would look like a bit of London set down in St. Louis, for these clothes are decidedly English in manner. Loose draping, wide shoulders, cutaway fronts, large trouser legs.

35 YEARS DESPITE 'TRUTH SERUM' FAILURE

Negro, Who Withstood Scopolamin Test Convicted of Attack on Woman.

George Hudson, a negro, 24 years old, charged with attacking an elderly white woman, and who last June, while under the influence of a "truth serum," administered in scientific tests at the City Jail, proclaimed his innocence, was convicted yesterday by a jury in Circuit Judge Taylor's court and sentenced to 35 years in the penitentiary.

The woman, who is 64 years old, positively identified Hudson as a man who entered her room at 400 Belmont boulevard the night of Feb. 25, 1924, and attacked her after stealing $7 from a handbag. On the witness stand yesterday Hudson again denied the charge.

When tests were made here with scopolamin, the "truth serum," on several prisoners at the city jail, Hudson was among the number who volunteered to submit to the test. While under the influence of the drug he denied he knew what woman accused him. Then he was asked:

"You run with girls, don't you?"
"Yes, sah."
"Which was your best girl?"
"I likes all them women."
"Don't you know where this woman lived?"
"Now, sah, I don't. I didn't do it."

A previous trial, last October, at which an unsuccessful attempt was made to introduce this test as evidence, resulted in a mistrial. No attempt was made to introduce the "truth serum" test yesterday.

NEED FOR ROAD FUNDS IN COUNTY IS OUTSTANDING

worked as a move to fight annexation, which is to be considered by a board of freeholders soon. Proponents of the bonds deny that annexation is an issue.

The pamphlet also asserts that there is nothing binding in the proposal to build highways through the suburban towns, this being contrary to past practice of the County Court. It attacks the Advisory Committee planning to safeguard bond expenditures as "mere camouflage and absolutely without any standing at law." It avers that road improvement is a scheme to help subdivision promoters, and points out the extremely high tax rates which home-owners in some suburban sections have to pay, in addition to high water, gas, insurance and improvement rates.

Reasons for which some other voters are opposing the bond issue are:

Increase of taxes. The Permanent Road and Bridge Association, which is supporting the bond issue, figures that the average tax levy for interest and retirement of the bonds during the 20 years of their life will be 21 cents on the $100, added to the levies for maintenance and retiring the old bond issue.

Belief that annexation might make it unnecessary for the county as at present constituted to improve its roads.

Existence of county officials, favored by political and administrative conditions which have been under discussion since the wholesale frauds of the 1912 primary election. Fear that the political machine will dictate and control the improvements.

Lack of a definite plan for improvements.

Fear of interference with plans for needed sewers.

Assertion chiefly in rural sections that "we don't need the roads."

Fred Essen, Republican, "boss" of the county, and his county partner, the Watchman-Advocate, are supporting the bond issue, and Essen is frank to say that he thinks road improvement and stricter law enforcement will postpone the day of annexation—which would lengthen his time of power. The St. Louis County Leader, which was started by the defunct Clean Election League and now represents one group of the league, is opposing it. The Sentinel-Democrat, a Democratic paper, is for it. Most of the political leaders appear to be for the bonds.

A second proposition on which county voters will act Tuesday is a $115,000 bond issue for a court house, replacing the old section of the present one but utilizing a new wing now in use. This would include a new jail and it is proposed to take about $45,000 of the fund to build a garage for county automobiles and equipment. Although the county is not authorized to bond itself for a garage. The present courthouse is cramped and a fire hazard, the jail is dilapidated, and a garage is needed. However, the general sentiment seems to be that the county can get along with the present buildings and may not need new ones if annexation occurs.

Meetings of the Permanent Road and Bridge Association in behalf of the road bond issue will be held tonight at Overland Park High School, Althorn, Black Jack, Grover, Jennings, (Crown, Crest, hall), and Matteson. There will be meetings Saturday night at Benton and Eureka, Sunday night at Osage and Monday night at Maplewood city hall.

The Richmond Heights group of opponents will hold a meeting tonight at Clayton School No. 2, Bellevue and Dale avenues, against both bond issues.

STAG DANCE STOPPED
ON SLEEP TALKER'S TIP

Husband Told Wife, Wife Told Police and Police Told Dancer to Go Home

Someone talked in his sleep.
That was why Detective Sergeant Roach and Detective Mehlinger of the morals squad attended a "stag"
party last night in Forest Park Hall, 4512 Manchester avenue.

Earlier yesterday a woman had called Chief of Police Gerk and told him that her husband had talked in his sleep.

"I want you to help me; tell you?" she asked.
That was a new one on Chief Gerk, and he said so.

"Not to stop him from talking in his sleep," she explained, "but to stop a party he's going to. He said in his sleep that a dance was to be given at Manchester Hall, one of those stag affairs. I think it ought to be stopped."

Roach was assigned to stop it, if necessary. The nearest approach
he could find to Manchester Hall was Forest Park Hall, which formerly bore that name.

He and Mehlinger sat quietly through several dances, which were entirely within good taste. Finally a young woman described by Roach as "very thin clad" came on the stage and began a dance "beyond the bounds of propriety."

Roach reported that he ordered her to "stop wriggling, get on her clothes and go home." No arrests were made. The manager then stepped on the stage, Roach said and announced, a la Raymond Hitchcock:

"That's all there is; there ain't no more."

It's the Only Real Clothing Achievement in Years
The Extra Pair of Pants!

While wonderful strides have been made in tailoring perfection—the only real outstanding achievement in the clothing industry is the "Two-Pants Suits."

At first merchants everywhere tried to discourage this Two-Pants Suit idea (and many are still going against the tide)— but Bond's was quick to realize that what was good for Bond's patrons was good for Bond's. And today—from New York to Omaha—thousands upon thousands of men and young men have learned to realize that the extra pair of pants is absolutely indispensable—not only from an appearance basis but economy also.

KLAN IN HERRIN, TWICE DEFEATED, LOSES ITS GRIP

Power of Secret Order in Williamson County Fast Fading as Opposition
Elects Many Candidates.

HERRIN, Ill., April 24.—The power of the Ku Klux Klan in Williamson County is fading rapidly since the two bitter defeats suffered in the township and city elections. The rule of the secret order is about to end and fall back into party hands. Told by members in decreasing and the parades and demonstrations of a few months ago are over. There have been no large demonstrations of the Klan in nearly six months and the election last fall, when the Klan paraded, was the last large one. There are no new members to take the place of those dropping out.

Herrin, the stronghold of klanism and where the armed forces of its members and sympathizers clashed with those of the anti-klans, and shot it out several times, fell into the hands of the anti-klans in the election Tuesday when the Mayor, City Clerk, Treasurer and two Aldermen were swept into office. The Klan got only two Aldermen.

Herrin is now for a house-cleaning and radical shakeup which will extend through almost every department. The police heads will drop first and the fire department will probably be next. Mayor McCormick was formerly a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He was elected Tuesday after the hottest fight in history of the city. No disorders were reported but in addition to the Mayor enough Aldermen for a working anti-klans majority in the City Council also were chosen.

REAPPORTIONMENT DEFEATED

House Rejects Senate Resolution for Joint Commission.

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—Reapportionment of the State of Illinois became a dead issue yesterday when the House by a vote of 26 to 34, refused to concur in Senate resolution No. 5, which would appoint a committee of five Senators and five representatives to devise a plan for it.

Representative Truman Snell, Carlinville, speaking against the measure declared the Senate was "running true to form in passing the buck to the House, knowing it could do nothing else but defeat the measure." The Senate resolution was similar to the Schnackenberg reapportionment resolution defeated in the House earlier in the session.

Wins Election by Three Votes.
METROPOLIS, Ill., April 24.—Alderman John D. Litchford was re-elected this week by three majority. When he ran before his majority was only one.

HANNIBAL CAMPAIGN WARMS UP

Democrats Nominate Mayor Anderson for Third Term.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HANNIBAL, Mo., April 24.—What is expected to be one of the most hotly contested city campaigns in Hannibal was started this week, with the Democrats nominating two of the incumbents and making a drive for votes on the record of the administration of Mayor Morris Anderson, who is heading the party ticket for a third term. The Republicans have nominated E. T. Cameron, a former county judge, who has been Anderson's unsuccessful opponent in the past two elections.

City Attorney John G. Cable, Democrat, running for reelection, is opposed by Harrison White, who also was the Republican candidate two years ago. City Recorder J. F. Shaw, Republican, is opposed by J. M. Fitzpatrick, Democrat. Five of the six Democratic aldermanic candidates are now seeking reelection.

Red Cross Staff Increased.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PERRYVILLE, Mo., April 24.—J. W. Richardson, director of disaster relief in the San Francisco branch of the American National Red Cross, has been added to the corps of workers in the Missouri-Illinois-Indiana area, according to an announcement by National Director Henry M. Baker. Assisting Richardson is Earl Kilpatrick, dean of the extension division of the University of Oregon and an experienced Red Cross worker, who arrived in the area Monday.

Farmer Visiting Son, Drops Dead

PEORIA, Ill., April 24.—Charles Chenoweth, 81, retired farmer of Galesburg, who has been visiting his son, L. E. Chenoweth, fell dead at the latter's home Tuesday night, following an automobile ride with the son's family. He complained of feeling tired when he returned home and retired to his room. He had sat down on the bed when he dropped over dead.

MANY METHODISTS FAVOR UNIFICATION

Twenty-Seven Conferences
Vote 2420 for, and 341
Against Combining.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 24.—Twenty-seven conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church have voted 2420 to 341, in favor of unification with the Methodist Episcopal Church South, which has been separated for more than half a century, according to figures made available by Dr. R. J. Wade, secretary of the general conference of the Northern Church.

Only two conferences of the Southern Church have voted on the proposition, the Cuban conference having voted unanimously for unification, while the Baltimore conference recently voted against it by a vote of 137 for and 141 against, according to advices received here. There are 37 conferences in the Southern Church yet to take action.

In the Northern Church five spring conferences and 78 conferences which meet next fall remain to be heard from. Of the 27 conferences which have balloted, the vote of the Wyoming conference of Pennsylvania, which acted on April 17, has not yet been received.

by Leaders of New Dogmas—Condemns Ban on Teaching Darwinian Theory.

Quantity rather than quality in education, breadth rather than depth and altitude in our higher institutions of learning—these are significant tendencies in American colleges and universities, Dr. Otto Heller, dean of the School of Graduate Studies of Washington University, pointed out in an address yesterday at the annual initiation ceremonies of Sigma Xi and Phi Beta Kappa, honorary societies, whose members are chosen for research and scholastic achievement.

His subject was "The Noble Company of the Learned," the address being given in Graham Memorial Chapel, following a procession of the members in academic robes about the campus.

"You will have guessed that I come with no thank offering for the present stupendous popularity of college education," said Dr. Heller. "My elation over the ravenous appetite for the higher knowledge signalled by the sudden multiplication of students throughout the length and breadth of the land registers, I must say, an economic rather than an educational gratification."

"Death From Own Inanity."

"Even though the college has acquired itself so well in the judgment of history that its swiftness of abolition would not be countenanced by the thoughtful element in society, it would be a blighting folly to let the new era knock vainly for admission at the gates of Academe. If we merely content ourselves with putting its tardiness, claimants into quarantine, they will die of their own inanity or insanity in time to save us the high cost of pompous academic funeral."

"The trouble is they sometimes force or bribe their way in, to the dismay of the scholar and the student's disadvantage. Already infuses the efficiency fanatic, threatening to make the university an accessory to a criminal design of making culture hum, while the windy ingression of the gospel according to Babbitt, through every crack and crevice of the old, ready strains the structure to the danger point."

"So contagious has been the outsider's impatience to fashion the form and substance of learning to his own crude and dogmatic valuation of the goods of life that the academic household is sorely divided against itself, nay subdivided."

about a redefinition of the prime purpose of a university. You are familiar with the slogans of this fight, 'Education for Efficiency'—or for Citizenship—or for Leadership—or for Character—just now Education for Service is the best-advertised brand. A good cry is half the battle and strong enough anyway to break up harmony."

Common sense impudently challenged.

In a university, "Play is not the thing; learning is," asserted Dr. Heller, who added that the answer to all these catchwords is to produce thinking men, the rest follows. Digressing from schools of learning, the speaker next leveled his verbal darts at the recent action of the Tennessee Legislature in outlawing the teaching of the Darwinian theory of evolution.

"Out of the controversial nebulae of the philosophies and the theologics," he continued, "there seemed to have emerged at last one condensed assurance; namely, that the more brightly the light of science shone, the less had religion to fear from its diffusion."

"Surely it is the dictate of the most elementary ethics not to hoodwink the world in regard to our central beliefs for the sake of our keep, just as it is a plain demand of intelligence not to stultify ourselves in regard to our honest doubts. What, then, did we do in point of fact? Well, we grumbled a lot and laughed a bit, at the start. Shortly remonstrance and ridicule drifted into silence and soon the trouble blew over in a smoke of peace."

Concluding, Dr. Heller said, "To my way of thinking, it is not paradoxical to say that a college cannot serve democracy better than by breeding aristocrats." "Let bestness be the goal," he declared.

37 Members Initiated.

Initiation ceremonies and a banquet were held at the Buckingham Hotel last night, 37 new members being initiated into Sigma Xi and 14 into Phi Beta Kappa.

COUNTRY BUILDING IS ACTIVE

Contracts for U. S. This Year Total $624,584,000.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Building construction in the cities outside New York continues to hold up remarkably. This is especially noticeable in the South and Central West. The work outside the cities has undoubtedly shown a marked increase compared with last year. There is no indication that the volume of building and road work for the year will slump. This tendency is borne out by the fact that contracts for construction let from Jan. 1 to the middle of April in the United States totaled approximately $624,584,000 or $18,800,000 more than for the corresponding period of 1931.

Actual construction work is progressing at extraordinary speed. This is evidenced by the shipments of cement for the first quarter. Cement is one of the most accurate barometers of the building trades, since cement is normally used very shortly after it is shipped. Much of this material is wet and poured within two weeks of receipt by contractor. Shipments for the first quarter totaled 21,458,000 barrels, slightly more than for the corresponding period last year.

DEATH BARS ALL WEDDINGS 8 DAYS IN ST. CLAIR COUNTY

License Bureaus in East St.
Louis and Belleville Closed
When County Clerk Dies.

Marriage licenses can not be obtained in St. Clair County today.
Neither can tax redemption certificates be issued or any other business be transacted which requires the signature of the County Clerk.

The unusual situation is brought about by the death yesterday of County Clerk A. J. Hoerr of Belleville. Immediately following his death, Leon G. Smith, marriage license clerk at East St. Louis, was ordered to discontinue issuance of licenses until the vacancy caused by Hoerr's death had been filled.
St. Clair County residents who plan to marry within the next few days will have to go outside the county, and eloping couples, many of whom have gone to East St.
Louis, will have to go elsewhere for licenses.

Hoerr's place probably will be filled May 2 by the County Board of Supervisors, who will appoint a successor to hold office until a special election can be held. That the business of the County Clerk may go on, Judge W. R. Weber yesterday named Fred Kissel clerk of that body.

Maneuvers Were Routine Cruise.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 24.—The present maneuvers of the American battle fleet off Hawaii merely is a routine cruise such as is held annually by the United States navy,
according to Secretary of Navy Wilbur in a written communication to Kyoshi K. Kawakami, representative of the Osaka Mainichi Publishing Co. of Japan. Secretary Wilbur's statement was issued in response to a request by Kawakami, who said he wished it to clear away the doubt and suspicion which evidently exists in many Japanese minds.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch
and the Chicago Daily News.

CAIRO, April 24.—Though dates have been a staple product of Eastern tropical and desert lands since history began, the Sudan Government called on the American Department of Agriculture recently to get the most best qualified to report on the possibilities of date palm cultivation

in the upper reaches of the Nile.
Silas Mason, field agent of the Department of Agriculture, and formerly a professor in a small college, has just completed a six months survey of the Sudan and compiled a voluminous report of localities suitable for date cultivation with comments on which varieties are preferable.

Before dispatching his services, the British Government in-dured Mason as the world's greatest authority on date palms. An amusing incident occurred at the Cairo hotel before Mason sailed for America. A group of women tour-

CRETE BANK LOSS
IN SUPREME COURT

Illinois Cashier $400,000 Short When Bank, Capitalized at $25,000, Closed in 1919.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—
One of the oldest, and perhaps the most involved case before the Supreme Court, the famous Crete Bank case, in which a cashier was convicted of diverting approximately $500,000 from a bank capitalized at $25,000, was before the court for settlement today.

The case, in which the State sought to convict the directors of the Illinois State Bank of Crete for negligence in supervising the cashier, was decided in favor of the State in the Circuit Court, but in the Appellate Court a writ of error was granted and the case came on to the Supreme Court. The record in the case is most voluminous. A trunk was required to ship it to Springfield.

Briefs in the case give the history of Crete in detail, the character of its people, descendants of frugal German farmers who accumulated moderate fortunes by acquiring land and spending little, is described, and the changes which have come about as twentieth century methods invaded the serenity of the place are recounted. Each of the bank directors, the Seggebruch brothers, Henry Kracke, Louis Rathje and others are described and each is given a character. That one had financial ability; this one was unintelligent and another was "slow."

Cashier Was Director's Son.
The plot became complicated
when Louis Rathje, who was a financial genius, decided to start a bank in Crete. For cashier he selected Gustave Kracke, a son of one of the directors. The new cashier had had 13 months of experience in banking. He received $40 a month. Rathje had made a fortune in real estate and had moved to Chicago. His old neighbors in Crete knew him for an honest and a wise man and they were eager to invest in his bank.

Soon after Kracke took charge of the bank he discovered that his friend, William Seggebruch, a nephew of the Seggebruch brothers, who were directors of the bank,
had overdrawn his account. A meeting of the directors was imminent and the overdraft was large.
Kracke, the cashier, feared to report it to the directors, so he opened the books
in which depositors' records were kept, and removed enough deposits to balance the books. The meeting of the board was a more or less perfunctory affair. His statement was heard and approved and all of the banking was left to him.
Most of the directors attended because it gave them a sense of importance and because they were for the most part retired farmers, and the meetings gave them something to do. Rathje was busy in Chicago and seldom attended.

William Seggebruch was speculating. He promised Kracke that he would make a coup and cover his overdrafts so that the bank could again maintain regular accounts. His judgment of the market was poor, and his overdraft grew until he was more than $100,- 000 in debt to the bank. Kracke covered these overdrafts by removing depositors' slips until he could no longer do that without reducing the deposits, which he reported monthly to the board of directors, to a ridiculous figure.

Falsified Books in 1900.
Then he took over the speculation himself in an effort to redeem
the shortage. His first falsification of the books occurred in 1900.
In 1919, when the bank was closed,
he was $400,000 short, in addition to the $100,000 overdraft, and this in spite of the fact that the bank was capitalized for only $25,000 and never had deposits much in excess of $150,000. During the last years of his operation, Kracke forged notes to force a balance, and finally began to sell these notes. Trust fund were used to balance accounts and real estate notes and bonds belonging to others were sold.

The bank was closed after a surprise visit of State Bank Examiners. How it had kept operating was a mystery since his statements to the State Auditor, to the board of directors and those published under the law, in the papers, seldom agreed. In 1919 Auditor Andrew Russell established a new rule whereby banks were examined twice a year. These notes, covered Kracke off guard and he was discovered and convicted.

In the present case the directors are not charged with dishonesty,
but with having been negligent.
Seven of them are involved, two having died. Henry Kracke refused to defend his son. Neither did he defend himself as a director of the bank, and, when the case went against the directors, he refused to be a party to an appeal. He died shortly after the case was decided,
and his wife died a short time later.

New Trial for Floyd Williams.
By the Associated Press
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—
Floyd Williams, sentenced to hang for the murder of Henry Bodens-black, by the St. Clair County Circuit Court, was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court today. The decision of the lower court was reversed and a new trial ordered.

FRENCH PREMIER POORLY PAID

Gets Less Than $6000 a Year With Pension Later Improbable.
 Correspondence of the Associated Press.
 PARIS, April 23.—To serve as Premier of France is not only difficult but very expensive. The head of the French Government receives less than $6000 a year in salary and since in the last 25 years no French Premier has been in office for a longer period than 23 months, none of them has been able to take advantage of the law granting a life-long pension after six years spent permanently in office. Aristide Briand, who has been Premier seven times, lives in a small apartment in Paris and cannot afford to employ a servant. The wife of the Premier does the daily cleaning and when a caller rings Briand's door bell the old statesman opens the door himself. Edward Herriot, who knows that French Premiers do not remain long in office, has not resigned his position as Mayor of Lyons, a position he has held for 26 years. Every Saturday afternoon he goes to his home town, 300 miles from Paris and spends Sunday attending to the affairs of that prosperous city. Recently he told his friends that he looked forward with joy to the time when he would be able to return to Lyons for good and devote all his attention to its affairs.

MO.-PAC. SEEKS TO ACQUIRE TEXAS LINE

Purchase of San Antonio, Uvalde and Gulf Railroad Is Being Planned.

The San Antonio, Uvalde & Gulf Railroad, a Texas line built with St. Louis capital through the now defunct Bankers Trust Co., is being sought by the Missouri Pacific as an addition to the present mileage of that system, which last fall became the greatest in the United States. President Baldwin of the Missouri Pacific has confirmed reports that the negotiations for the San Antonio, Uvalde & Gulf are one of two competing lines between San Antonio and Corpus Christi. With two branches, its total mileage is 316 miles. The present mileage of the Missouri Pacific system is 14,544 miles. Purchase of this line would be a natural sequel to the acquisition, last year, of the Gulf Coast lines and the International & Great Northern. The S. A. U. & G. connects the two lines, and gives the Missouri Pacific an additional outlet to the Gulf.

President Baldwin's statement says, as to the finances of the proposed purchase: "The securities of the S. A. U. & G. are held in two blocks of 44 per cent and a third block of 4 per cent. The Missouri Pacific, through the Gulf Coast lines, has obtained an option on one of the large blocks and the small block, which will, if acquired, give the Missouri Pacific system lines 52 per cent of the securities and control of the property. It is our intention to immediately apply to the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to exercise the option."

Should the acquisition be authorized, it is hoped and anticipated that the remainder of the securities can be acquired on a mutually satisfactory basis.

Brazil's State of Siege Continued. RIO JANEIRO, April 24.—President Bernardes announces that the state of siege, which was to end April 23, will be continued until Dec. 13. Constitutional guarantees will be suspended until the end of 1925 in the Federal district and the States of Rio Janeiro, Sao Paulo, Bahia, Sergipe, Para, Amazonas, Mato Grosso, Parana, Santa Catharina and Rio Grande do Sul, comprising about one-half the national population.

TEN YEARS AFFLICTED—Had tried every known remedy—undergone operation, but failed to get cured. Fifty-seven years old. I had decided my case was incurable. Today am sound and well. Have gained 23 pounds. Glad to answer any questions about treatment.
 Dr. C. Matthew Coe, 501 Pine St.
 St. Louis, Mo., April 11, 1925.
 Dear Dr. Coe:—I had been afflicted with a fistula for ten years. I had tried every remedy heard of, had even been to the hospital and undergone an operation, but it did not cure me. I am 57 years old and had decided there was no cure for a man of my age. Since taking your treatment I am sound and well. I have waited to be sure that it was a permanent cure before writing this letter. I have gained 23 pounds and feel better and stronger in every way.
 I am certainly pleased with your treatment, and am only too glad to answer any questions regarding you and your treatment.

TO REBUILD SALT AIR RESORT

Officers Consider Immediate Replacement of Burned Structures.

By the Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 24.—Plans for the immediate reconstruction of Salt Air resort, ruined by fire Tuesday, were considered by officers of the Salt Air Beach Co. The fire, believed to have started in the roller skating rink, spread rapidly before a stiff breeze. Within a few hours the flames had consumed all but the platform the bathing concession,
the roller coaster and several of the smaller concessions in the east section. The bathing facilities will open June 1 as usual.

Salt Air resort is on the shore of the great Salt Lake 20 miles west of here. It was built in 1893 by the Mormon Church and each summer has been the playground of thousands of Salt Lake residents and tourists.

Beacon for Dangerous Point.

By the Associated Press.

SAN SALVADOR, April 24.—A beacon has been erected on Amapallita point on the Salvadorean coast, which always has been considered a danger to navigation.

This beacon was built in Great Britain and weighs a half ton. It is equipped with powerful lenses of various colors which may be used for signals.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Commander Douglas W. Fuller, in command of the naval transport Beaufort when liquor was seized on board recently on the arrival of that vessel at Hampton Roads, will be tried by courtmartial for neglect of duty on the following specifications:

Neglected and failed to cause

hibited articles into the United States.

Lieut. Clarence W. Baker, Lieut.
Rowland D. Hill, Chief Pay Clerk
James P. Gallaher and Machinist
Frank M. Hendricks are charged

Fuller was relieved of command of cian, has turned to Texas.

John S. Sbarbaro, Assistant

NAVY HAS 5-INCH ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUN

It Fires Explosive Shell, With Fuses That Explode on Touching Plane's Wing.

Post-Dispatch Bureau

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The Navy Department has announced development of a five-inch anti-aircraft gun that will exceed greatly in range, accuracy of fire and effectiveness the three-inch type now in use.

The first of these guns will be installed on the battleship Maryland this summer.

The new gun will have complete fire control equipment, which the present type lacks. With the present guns it is possible to shoot in any direction, even straight overhead, and the extreme effective range vertically is about 5,000 yards. The range of the new guns will exceed this by 4,000 to 5,000 yards.

The shells used are of the high explosive type, with fuses timed to explode at a given range. Extensive experiments have been conducted with highly sensitized fuses that will explode on contact with the fabric of a plane's wing and it is considered probable that the new and more powerful guns will fire the latter type of explosive shell.

The department has made public also detailed reports of recent tests in which anti-aircraft gunners of the fleet registered a large percentage of hits against aerial targets. These targets, according to naval officers, demonstrated the inaccuracy of statements that anti-aircraft fire is ineffective in repelling airplane attacks.

Naval experts feel these tests have marked a great advance and that with the additional improvements which the new five-inch guns and sensitized fuses will bring the anti-aircraft gun will become a real factor in meeting aerial attack on surface vessels.

Turkey and Greece are said to have signed agreement

Constantinople, April 24.—Advises to the Exchange Telegraph from Constantinople say an agreement has been signed settling all the problems affecting Turkey and Greece.

The principal cause of friction between Turkey and Greece has been the operation of that part of the treaty of Lausanne providing for the exchange of minority populations. The question was apparently settled at the meeting of the League of Nations Council in Brussels last October, but it was suddenly reopened early this year when the Turks expelled the ecclesiastical patriarch of the Greek Orthodox Church from Constantinople on the ground that he was one of those "exchangeable" under the treaty. Greece appealed to the League and the council on March 14 referred the case to the Permanent Court of International Justice at The Hague.

PLANE IN TEST FLIGHT ON MAIL ROUTE TO CHICAGO
D. R. Robertson Makes Hop in 2 1/2 Hours and Return Trip in 4 Hours.

A test flight to Chicago and return over the mail route to be opened July 1 was completed yesterday by the Robertson Aircraft Corporation, which will be one of the bidders for the air mail contract.

Dan R. Robertson, piloting a Curtiss Oriole and carrying one passenger, made the 250 miles from Lambert-St. Louis field to Chicago in exactly two hours and 30 minutes, an average of 100 miles an hour. The return trip, made against headwinds that at times reached a velocity of 50 miles an hour at 4000 feet, was accomplished in four hours and 10 minutes, for an average of 60 miles an hour.

The Robertson company has four Oriones ready for instant use. They are capable of carrying 500 pounds of mail in the meantime the company is to build five De Havilland fours and has completed the first of the five. These ships, which are replicas of the DH-4s used in the transcontinental service, will carry up to 1000 pounds of mail.

Bids for the Chicago-St. Louis mail contract will be called for within a few weeks under the terms of the Kelly bill, which offers contractors 8 cents an ounce between St. Louis and Chicago. The service will be so timed as to make connections with the night plane between Chicago and New York. Similarly the return trip will carry mail brought from New York to Chicago by the night plane.

URGES ADEQUATE CAMP HERE FOR AUTOMOBILE TOURISTS
Matt Morse Assests St. Louis Facilities Are Recognized as Among Poorest in Country.

"For the last 10 years," said Matt Morse, general manager of the Automobile Club of Missouri, at yesterday's luncheon of the Kiwanis Club, "tourists have looked upon Missouri as the mud-hole of the United States. The St. Louis tourist camp in Forest Park also is recognized as one of the poorest in the country. The new road system is going to create a much better feeling toward Missouri on the part of tourists and in the next few years there will be three or four times as many tourists passing through St. Louis as there are now. There are no facilities at all at the present tourist camp. All we have there is the ground. In New York they are building a new camp to accommodate 1500 automobiles at one time. Denver has one of the best in the country, and even Joplin has a tourist camp with a swimming pool and other facilities. "It is good business policy to provide adequate facilities for tourists, and if the city won't do it, then civic organizations and public-spirited citizens should finance an adequate tourist camp."

Organization of a company to open several tourist camps here is under way.

MAN WHO LEFT FAMILY OF 5 DESTITUTE FACES PROSECUTION
Barney Welborn Arrested on Return to City, Saying He Left to Borrow Money.

A warrant charging nonsupport of his family will be sought today against Barney Welborn, 34 years old, who was arrested by Police Sergeant McGrawley last night on his return to the city after an absence of a week, during which his wife, Mrs. Ethel Welborn, and her four small children were locked out of their rooms at 1309 South Fourteenth street because they owed three weeks' rent.

The plight of Mrs. Welborn and the children, who range in age from 5 months to 9 years, was discovered by Sgt. McGrawley last Tuesday and he obtained temporary quarters for them at 2043 Park avenue, supplying them with money for their immediate needs himself. Mrs. Welborn said her husband had gone to Desloge, Mo., in an effort to borrow money to pay the rent.

Welborn was looking for his family at the Park avenue address last night when he was taken into custody. He had $28 in his pocket, which he said he had borrowed. He denied he was guilty of nonsupport, declaring he had been looking for work and returned as soon as he could raise money for the rent.

Taunts Blamed for Suicides.
Correspondence of the Associated Press.
VIENNA, April 5.—Thirty-two suicides in 1924 and eight since the beginning of the year among soldiers of the Austrian army have caused the adoption of measures designed to end the growing morbidity in the ranks. Investigation and farewell letters, says the Arbeiter Zeitung, show that the men take their lives because they are systematically harassed and glibed at officers who are of monarchistic or their republican opinions by traditions.

HORNSBY NOT BADLY HURT; WILL BE OUT FOR SEVERAL DAYS

Cards' Ace Suffers Slight Concussion When Hit by Ball, Doctor Announces

"Beaten" by One of Luque's Slants in the Third Inning, League's Greatest Hitter Is Forced to Retire in the Fifth—Reds Break Rickenbacker's Winning Streak.

By Herman Wecke.

Adolfo Luque, Cuban right-hander, ended the Cardinals' winning streak, which had reached five in a row, yesterday. Luque was just as good a pitcher yesterday as he was in Cincinnati in the second game of the season, and, as a result, won his third successive victory of the campaign. Luque, one of the Reds' mainstays on the hill, silenced the Rickenbacker slugs with eight safeties and two runs.

The game, aside from shattering the Cardinals' winning streak, was marred by an accident which forced Rogers Hornsby, the leading batter of the National League, out of the game, and which for a time threatened to be serious to the infielder.

The accident occurred in the third inning, when the Cardinal slugger was hit on the head by one of Luque's fast offerings, suffering a slight brain concussion. Hornsby went down for the count and it was some time before he was able to get to first base. By agreement, Toporover was permitted to run for the injured player, but he returned to his place when the team took the field. However, in the fifth he was forced to retire.

Not Badly Hurt, Physician Says. Dr. Robert F. Hyland, the club physician, announced this morning that Hornsby was a little injured, and that his condition was favorable. He asserted that it was only a matter of a few days before the star would be able to return to the game regularly, but that it depended greatly on later developments.

With Hornsby out, it is probable that George Toporover will cover second base for the Rickenbacker with a right-hander working for the opposition, with Jimmy Conroy getting the job when a left-hander is on the hill for the enemy.

Yesterday, Leo Dickerman, right-hander, who last Sunday sent out the Cubs with four hits, was wild and ineffective. Dickerman tarried just five innings during that time, the Cincinnati club pounded, over six runs on the hill for the Cardinals. The enemy added another tally against Bill Hallahan, young left hander in the ninth, so the final score read 7 to 2.

As a result of the defeat, the Rickenbacker fell from a tie for second place to fourth position, the Phillies passing the local clan as a result of a victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Cards End Luque a Puzzle. In the two games in which the Cardinals have faced Luque, this season, the Cardinal slugs have made just four hits and the Cardinals have lost both games.

In Redtown in the opening series of the campaign, the Cuban halted the Rickenbacker clan with two safeties and six safeties.

Yesterday the St. Louis slugs were able to break through Luque's great pitching only twice to score. In the first, Holm singled, reached second on a passed ball and scored on Hornsby's single. A double by Bell and singles

Captain Hal Runs Impressive Trial; Quatrain Gallops

Kaiser Colt's Workout Best Derby Test of the Season, Clockers Say.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 24.—When Capt. Hal, local Derby candidate, "scratched his stuff" over the mile and one-eighth course at Churchill Downs yesterday, he set the tongues of the railbirds a-tingling.

That the trial of the son of Black Toney was the best of any of the Derby colts trained here this spring, there seems little question. The fact that the colt went alone and not accompanied by a pacer, as was Lee O. Carter, a few days ago, makes it even more impressive than the time record.

Capt. Hal, property of A. A. Kaiser, was ridden by Jake Hougel, who will have the mount on him in the classic. The colt seemed a bit rank, and Hougel had to save him on him, going around the turns. He was hard held all the way, keeping the first quarter in 23.3, half 48, three-quarters in 1:14.5, mile and an eighth in 1:35.5. This is within one-fifth of a second of the trial made by Lee O. Carter last Tuesday morning.

WRAY'S COLUMN

Can't Judge Now.

PASSING judgment on baseball clubs in April is like guessing a latter-day woman's age.

It can't be done. That's one reason for suspending judgment on the showing of any club in the race, today. In the gradually rounding out of teams and in the settling process whereby the spring boomers cease to bloom and the late comers round to form, there will be many readjustments of early opinions.

A case where that is not the case, however, is the case of the St. Louis Cardinals. The club has been in the race since the first of the season, and it is not likely that it will be replaced.

There is also a possibility that Tommy Fleming, the veteran left wing man, will be replaced by Mike Bookie in the clutch here. Bookie is an American born player who only recently was obtained by the Boston club from the Vestaburg Club of Pittsburg.

The Boston party, 15 strong, will reach St. Louis tomorrow afternoon. Those in the party will be Manager Dave Scott, Tommy Steel, Jimmy McMillan, Jack McCarthy, Jack McIntyre, Mickey Hamill, Johnny Ballantyne, Hugh Lormier, Willie Ballantyne, Allick McNab, Mike Bookie, Tommy Fleming, Barney Battles, Duve Sharp and Trainer Barney O'Connell.

Manager Scott, in a communication asserts that while the Boston club was anxious to play the third game in the East, the officials never refused to play in St. Louis. Scott is confident that the eleven will create a better impression in the coming tilt than in the first one, when the Millers won, 1 to 0, scoring the only goal in the last three minutes of play.

The Millers will be strengthened for the deciding game by the addition of two star halfbacks, Pink and Tracy, from the Vesper club. Manager Foley announced today that his eleven, was in condition for the game.

Thomas W. Cahill, secretary of the American League, arrived here yesterday and today will complete details for the encounter. Dave Evans, the Detroit referee, will arrive Sunday morning.

The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

M'Arthur, Boston Team's Fullback, On Injured List

Player Suffered Wrenched Knee Early in Week—Fleming May Be Replaced.

When the Ben Millers and Boston Football Club meet in the third and final game of the series to decide the professional soccer championship of the United States at St. Louis U. Field Sunday, there is a possibility that the Easterners will present a changed lineup.

Jack McArthur, one of the best backs in the East, will probably be unable to play, according to word received from Dave Scott, manager of the team, as a result of a wrenched knee suffered at New Bedford early in the week. If McArthur is unable to play, Dave Scott will be at the fullback position.

There is also a possibility that Tommy Fleming, the veteran left wing man, will be replaced by Mike Bookie in the clutch here. Bookie is an American born player who only recently was obtained by the Boston club from the Vestaburg Club of Pittsburg.

Scott is confident that the eleven will create a better impression in the coming tilt than in the first one, when the Millers won, 1 to 0, scoring the only goal in the last three minutes of play.

The Millers will be strengthened for the deciding game by the addition of two star halfbacks, Pink and Tracy, from the Vesper club. Manager Foley announced today that his eleven, was in condition for the game.

Thomas W. Cahill, secretary of the American League, arrived here yesterday and today will complete details for the encounter. Dave Evans, the Detroit referee, will arrive Sunday morning.

The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Munn and Lewis Sign to Wrestle Decoration Day

Event Will Be Held at Michigan City; "Strangler" to Get 60 Per Cent.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, April 24.—When Stanislaus Zhyzskyk threw Wm. (Big) Munn in Philadelphia, he won't only obtain the world's heavyweight wrestling title, but incidentally cut the Michigan giant, out of the possibility of earning a sum in the neighborhood of $5000.

The money represents the difference between Munn's share of the purse in his scheduled title match with Ed (Strangler) Lewis at Michigan City, Ind., on Decoration day and what it might have been if negotiations started later.

Promoter Floyd, of Minneapolis, originally offered a guarantee of $50,000 for the Munn-Lewis match when Munn held the title and had posted $30,000 of that sum. An effort was made to induce Munn and Lewis to forego matches until the Michigan City event. Munn's failure to do so has cost him a pretty penny.

Lewis to Get 60 Per Cent. With Munn a defeated champion, but with Lewis still claiming the title, articles for the Munn-Lewis match, finally signed yesterday, call for a purse of $10,000, of which Munn will get 40 per cent and Lewis 60 per cent. This Munn's share will be $12,000. With the purse $10,000, and Munn still champion, he probably would have obtained the 60 per cent, or $16,000.

The second-round belt, emblematic of the title and valued at $10,000 will be awarded the winner. Lewis has retained the title since he was thrown by Munn at Kansas City, contending that Munn should have been disqualified for foul.

Browns 0, Indians 1 (AFTER 2 1-2 INNINGS); DAVIS HURLS AGAINST UHLE

By Dent McSkimming,
Of the Post-Dispatch Sport Staff.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—Dixie Davis and George Uhle, a pair of right-handers, were the pitchers for the Browns and Cleveland Indians in the third game of the series here this afternoon.

The preliminary batting practice, which began at 2:30, showed an indication to the ball against Uhle, for there is no doubt that he will be used against the first scheduled pitcher that starts against the Browns.

Uhle and Davis, the two right-handers, took a turn at the bat in the practice and both showed they are well but not strong enough to get into the battle.

Uhle, the third member of a hospital list, is in St. Louis.

The game.

FIRST INNING.

Browns.—John singled to center. Robertson hit into a double play. Fowler to Sewell to Knobe. Sewell grounded to Knobe. NO RUNS.

Cleveland.—Jameson fouled out. Spurgeon doubled over the left field line. Speaker to Gerber, who tossed to Robertson. Spurgeon was caught in a run-up. Speaker meanwhile went all the way to second base, but when both runners slid into the plate, Speaker was tagged out by Fowler. Sewell singled to left. Spurgeon. Sewell did better. Sewell to Gerber. ONE RUN.

SECOND INNING.

Browns.—Williams lined to Spurgeon. Spurgeon threw out. Fowler went to center. Williams' fly. NO RUNS.

Cleveland.—Gerber grabbed a runner behind second and tossed him out. Robertson went out. Spurgeon. Knobe lined a line-drive off the right-hand wall for two bases. Fowler to Williams. NO RUNS.

THIRD INNING.

Browns.—Sewell threw out. Gerber filed to Knobe. Davis grounded to Knobe. NO RUNS.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 24.—When Stanislaus Zbyszko threw Wayne Munn in Philadelphia recently he not only obtained the world's heavyweight wrestling title, but incidentally put the Nebraska giant out of the possibility of earning a sum in the neighborhood of $2000.

The money represents the difference between Munn's share of the purse in his scheduled $30,000 match with Ed Lewis at Michigan City, Ind., on Decoration day and what it might have been if negotiations started before his defeat had gone through.

Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons originally offered a guarantee of $50,000 for the Munn-Lewis match when Munn still held the title and had posted $20,000 of that sum. An effort was made to induce both Munn and Lewis to forego matches until the Michigan City event. Munn's failure to do so has cost him a pretty penny.

Lewis to Get 60 Per Cent.

With Munn a defeated champion, but with Lewis still claiming the title, articles for the Munn-Lewis fight, finally signed yesterday, call for a purse of $30,000, of which Lewis will get 60 per cent and Munn 40 per cent. Thus Munn's share will be $12,000. With the purse $50,000 and Munn still champion, he probably would have obtained the 60 per cent, or $30,000.

The diamond-studded belt, emblem of the title and valued at $10,000, will be awarded the winner. Lewis has retained the belt since he was thrown by Munn at Kansas City, contending that Munn should have been disqualified on a foul.

Pikers to Play Nebraska Today

Contest Likely to Be Duel Between Pitchers Land and Levy.

Washington University will open the local Missouri Valley Conference season against the University of Nebraska today at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The game will be played on Liggett field, which adjoins Francis Field, and which will be played tomorrow.

Today's game should produce an interesting pitching duel between Land and Levy, Washington's star, who won a no-hit game from Missouri earlier in the week. The veteran Levy is regarded as one of the best hurlers in the conference. Nebraska showed good pitching and a fair defense in dividing two games with the Missouri Tigers, but the Cornhuskers showed no particular strength at bat.

The batting order follows:

WASHINGTON.—NEBRASKA.

Land, 2b; Levy, 1b; Knobe, 3b; Spurgeon, 4b; Fowler, 5b; Robertson, 6b; Williams, 7b; Jameson, 8b; Davis, 9b.

NEBRASKA.—Washington.

Land, 2b; Levy, 1b; Knobe, 3b; Spurgeon, 4b; Fowler, 5b; Robertson, 6b; Williams, 7b; Jameson, 8b; Davis, 9b.

HORNSBY'S To Baseball Queries

Runners on second and third. Pitcher makes a balk and the umpire sends runner on third home. Runner on second is also allowed to go to third. Is this right, or can only one of the runners, the man on third, be given a base?—R. T. Granite City.

Both of the runners are advanced. If the pitcher balks it affects all runners on the bases.

Runner is on second base and the batter hits a foul ball. Does the runner have to go back and touch the base or not?—Second Base.

If the runner is off the base when the foul is batted he must go back to the base and touch it.

Please tell me how to cure a strained cord or muscle in the hip which I get every spring from very fast running.—M. M. B.

It would be best for you to go to a trainer or to a doctor who can place the probable spot of hurt. Sometimes a bandage of warm flannel rather closely applied will help. If the spot always becomes sore it is likely to result from a strained tendon or a misplaced muscle.

How are the percentages of clubs figured as to games won and lost?—R. P.

Divide the total of games won by the total number of games played.

If a runner is on first base and makes an attempt to steal second base should the man who is batting get out of his box so the catcher can throw the ball down to second base, or can he remain in his position at the bat?—Y. L.

The batter may remain in the box, but he should not balk the catcher or try to interfere with him in any way. The batter is not required to dodge back or to step back.

STARTS TOMORROW
SIDNEY OLCOTT
He's the man that directed "Little Old New York," "The Humming Bird," "Monsieur

York, "The Many Faces of Beaucaire" and many other screen masterpieces. Mr. Olcott is without a doubt the greatest director of motion pictures in America. You will agree with us when you see his production—

THE CHARMER

Here is a motion picture that has everything that one could desire. It carries you from gay haunts of Old Madrid to New York City, the playground of the world. Between the two locales you will see a most wonderful romance unfolded, one that will thrill you to the very core.

POLA NEGRI

—one of the finest of all screen artists, head of the cast. Pola plays the role of both a follies beauty and vivacious Spanish dancing girl. She is excelling in both parts; in fact her marvelous interpretations in this picture will make screen history. Robert Frazer and Wallace MacDonald are the rivals for her hand and furnish plenty of big league romance in their courting. Don't miss the greatest picture of the entire year.

—ALSO—

ON THE STAGE, the great new edition of Ro Mack's "Chicago Follies" with 30 Jazz artists. Don't forget this edition has never before been presented in St. Louis.

The Man on the Sandbox

by

THE PASSING SHOW.

In our town there was a cop, Who seriously offended, By entering a tailor shop To have his trousers mended. And while the tailor with a hank Of thread was taking stitches, A bunch of guys held up a bank And made off with the riches.

Now, had his trousers been intact, He would have been on duty And saved the crib from being cracked.

With loss of all the booty, So, while the well-known stitch in time

May save a pair of breeches, The gentlemen engaged in crime Make hay between the stitches.

I see the Browns and Cards have signed A brand-new first-ball flinger; While he may prove to be a find, For Johnson he's no ringer.

While he may have the stuff to use Against the demon batter, To fill his predecessor's shoes, He'll have to split the platter.

SIGN HIM:

A man taken to the hospital the other evening suffering from a bullet wound in his right ear refuses to tell how the wound was inflicted. The bullet passed through the lobe of the right ear, struck a bone in his head and glanced off. Probably somebody took a shot at him while he was trying to steal second with the bases full.

"Mother Goose Shop Promoter Arrested in Oil Case."

Still feathering his nest, we take it.

The man on the sandbox says the boys are wearing two-in-one pants. Instead of two separate pair they have them incorporated in a single pair.

"Cartoonist Jailed for Drawing Bad Check."

That's what he gets for trying the serious stuff.

LET'S GO.

THE Baby Doll has signed. Three rousing cheers for Baby!

The cloud is silver lined. We'll win the pennant, maybe.
